True Cooperation

Cooperation was brought to the forefront when such sayings as, "If we don't hang together, we will hang separately", and "United we stand, divided we fall" were uttered by the founders of our country, its government and its policies. Today we still harp on cooperation. We go with the attitude, "I'll tell you what to do" instead of "you suggest something and I will follow."

And unless we have the pleasure of starting something and dictating to others we will not cooperate for the betterment of a thing, but will do it in our power to damn it. The term is established, and it is high time to stop talking about it and act.

It is said that Henry Ford would not even as much as spit on the cotton cooperative association just because a Jew was at the head when it was established. So it goes, one here and one yonder failing to cooperate with any movement just because, because, but well we don't know why.

Carl's Beaufort County Still Hunt

Has Carl Goerch disgraced the fraternity?
Carl recently captured a moose in his write-up on the capture he kept saying he was afraid. So far as we know, that is the first time a newspaper man has ever been afraid of anything.

And now Carl comes along and humiliates the whole brotherhood when he might just as easily have run over two or three deputy sheriffs and caught the operators with their

We all seem to have vision sufficient to look out and see that there is trouble, but few can direct that vision to where the trouble really is.

Economy stands a small chance where there is nothing to save. Grit and pluck on the part of all will be of more help.

The

ALL TRUTH AND RIGHTEOUSNESS ARE PERFECTLY CONSISTENT

They are gloriously harmonious in the character and works of God, the Father, Son and Spirit—in His works of creation, redemption and regeneration. He is the God of truth; His Son is the incarnation of truth; His Spirit is the Spirit of truth; and He calls His Written Word the Scriptures of truth. Everything in that Word, when rightly understood, is in exact harmony with all His Works in nature and in grace. He cannot lie or deny Himself. When we are illuminated by His Spirit, we gladly receive in our minds and hearts all that He has said in His works and in His Word, and see no contradiction between them, and desire to manifest our sense of this perfect unity in righteousness of life in loving words and acts towards God and towards all our fellow-creatures. We willingly accept everything that science discovers and proves to be true, thanking God for every revelation that He makes of Himself, and delighting to adorn our profession of faith in Him by a righteous life and conversation, seeking to know of Him in His works and Word, to glorify Him in all our ways, and to do to others as we would have them do to us, and thus illustrate the high and noble character of His true and holy religion, being a blessing to others while we remain on earth, and leaving a blessed memory of ourselves after our departure from this world. I have devoted the most of a long life to an earnest study of the relations between natural science and the Hebrew and Christian religion, and I have found no discord between them, but a divine and perfect harmony. In the beautiful words of the Psalmist: "Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other"; or, in the words of another, "Earth is carpeted with the flowers of truth, and canopied with the stars of righteousness"—all the works and all the Words of God proclaiming His glory in infinite and everlasting concord.

The Constitution of the United States guarantees liberty of speech and the press and conscience to every one of our citizens; it was founded righteousness—to elevate men and glorify God. It seems to me that no sound mind can fail to see the essential difference between theory and science, between supposition and knowledge. And no creature, except by Divine revelation, knows anything about the origin of the universe, or of matter, or life, or mind, or reason, or conscience. An eternal and infinite God directly created them, and He should and will have the glory for such creation.

SYLVESTER HASSELL

In Memory of
HAZEL EVELYN JONES

In loving memory of our dear little baby, Hazel Evelyn, who died June 11, 1924. Just one year ago God took her home to rest in a land where all is bright. Oh how hard we tried to save her, but our prayers and tears were all in vain. Happy angels came and took her from this world of sorry and of pain. No one knows the silent heart ache; only those who have lost can tell of the grief that was borne in silence of the one we loved so well. A dear little angel gone but not forgotten. Aye one year, nine months two weeks and one day.—Aunt and Mother.

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weatherly, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."

"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any color. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship."

"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength. I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."

NOTICE!! To Taxpayers

All taxes due and unpaid for the year 1924, not paid on or before July 1st, will force me to levy on all personal property and real estate as ordered by the Board of County Commissioners. Therefore I will thank those who have not paid to make arrangement to do so before that date in order to save the cost of having their property advertised.

Thanking you in advance for your prompt attention, I am,

Respectfully yours,
