Bigger Buying Power Builds Your Business

The Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association has steadily increased the buying power of tobacco farmers in your community.

Government statistics show that in 1922 it took only 20 pounds of tobacco to buy 100 pounds of barb wire, while in 1914 it took 31 pounds of tobacco to bring the price of 100 pounds of barb wire. Do you have to ask which is best for you, Mr. Farmer and Mr. Business Man?

The same farmer whose tobacco would buy more barb wire than in 1914 found in 1922 that it took him 7.2 bushels of corn to get 100 pounds of wire that had cost him only 4.8 bushels of corn in 1914. His wheat also lost in buying power, while tobacco increased.

Problem: How did tobacco farmers increase the buying power of their tobacco at a time when the buying power of their corn and wheat fell far below its former value?

Answer: The Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, which has directed the orderly marketing of 445,000,000 pounds of tobacco for growers who have organized in three States and paid out $72,500,000 to its members in Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina, has kept up the buying power of tobacco growers in these three States during the past three years. It has brought fully 180 million dollars to the farmer, the store, and the banks of our section which they would have lacked without the organization of the farmers to keep the price of their tobacco up.

This is a practical question that calls for a practical answer in the form of immediate action. You can keep prices up by helping the tobacco farmers of your section place their 1925 crop in the marketing association, where it will bring them best returns, where it will help to maintain the price of the chief crop of our section. Push with the farmers for Seeing is believing! Here are the facts. Read them and think!

Do you want to dismiss those 100 million dollars from our section for the next few years? Think it over, Mr. Farmer, who gets it first; Mr. Merchant, who takes it next; Mr. Banker, who holds it last.

Can we afford to let the tobacco farmer lose that buying power that he is gaining and increasing by the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association?
