

Fashion Show Here
Thursday, Oct. 29

On Thursday night, October 29, Williamston will have a real fashion show. Margolis Bros. & Brooks have been busy securing the very latest creations in style and fashion for this event, which will occur as a part of the Roanoke Beauty Contest.

Mr. Frank Margolis, of the firm of Margolis Brothers & Brooks, stated that he will have 12 models selected from the many beautiful and attractive young women of Williamston and that no effort or expense will be spared to make this feature of the beauty contest the very best.

The Roanoke Beauty Contest closes Saturday, October 24. The young ladies from the various districts who have received the greatest number of votes will on Thursday night in the Strand Theater, Williamston, be the ones from whom will be selected the queen of beauty.

A very interesting musical has been arranged for this time so that the people of this community will have a wonderful night of entertainment. The judging of the beauty contest, the fashion show, and the musical.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon the undersigned in a deed of trust executed by J. G. Godard on the 10th day of January, 1919, and of record in the public registry of Martin County in book A-2, page 10, said deed of trust given, to secure certain notes of even date therewith, and the stipulations in said deed of trust not having been complied with and at the request of the parties interested, the undersigned trustee will Thursday, the 29th day of October, 1925, at 12 o'clock m., in front of the courthouse door in the town of Williamston, N. C., sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following described property:

That tract of land in Williams Township, Martin County, North Carolina, beginning at the Clayton Moore new road, thence a northerly direction to the road known as the Island Road; thence along the Island Road to Eleanor Smithwick's corner; thence along the line of Della Smithwick to a stake; now Bettie Gray Gurkin's corner, formerly known as the John L. Ward land; thence along Bettie Gray Gurkin and John Moore's line, formerly known as the John L. Ward line, to the Williamston and Jamesville road; thence along the Clayton Moore new road to the beginning, containing 240 acres, more or less, and being the same land that the said W. M. Perry and wife, Virginia Perry, conveyed to R. W. Perry, and by R. W. Perry and wife to W. M. Perry, said deeds being of record in the public registry of Martin County, and being the same land this day conveyed to J. G. Godard by W. M. Perry and wife, Virginia Perry. Reserving and excepting all timber rights heretofore sold by the said W. M. Perry and wife, Virginia Perry.

Saving and excepting from the above described land that portion sold F. W. Holliday, and described in deed of trust from F. W. Holliday to Wheeler Martin, Trustee, said deed of trust being of record in the public registry of Martin County in book A-2 at page 354, reference to said deed of trust is hereby made for more definite description of the land excepted. This the 28th day of September, 1925.

WHEELER MARTIN, Trustee.

for Largest Women
New Fall Satin Frocks are smartly styled

Sizes 38 1-2 to 54 1-2 (40 to 56)

PRICES: $19.75 to $49.75

THE charm of satin is decidedly apparent in the many creations offered for Autumn and Winter wear.

The styles are slenderizing and youthful.

Women who wear the larger sizes will find ample fullness in armholes and hips.

Our interesting booklet, "Becoming Modes for the Large Woman," illustrating the New Fall and Winter Coats and Dresses will be mailed free upon request. Write for it.

Smart Dresses For Fall Needs

To wear at once, the two types most indispensable and most smartly carried off, are the cloth street dress, well tailored and youthful; the afternoon frock of silk crepe or satin, trimmed with touches of gold, as Paris dictates.

The most fashionable and individual interpretations of these important types are represented in a group of new fall models.
