

THE FIRST NOWEL

The first Nowel, the angels did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter night that was so deep,
Nowel, Nowel, Nowel, Nowel,
Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star,
Shining in the east beyond them afar,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.

And by that same star three wise men came from afar
To seek for a king was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went.

The star drew nigh to the northwest,
Over Bethlehem it took its rest,
And there it doth stop and stay,
Right over the place where Jesus lay

Mode of the Moment

Particularly interesting at this season of the year is the ensemble costume. The very smart model pictured is fashioned of green suede-finished cloth, and is trimmed with squirrel. The lining, of the same material of which the frock is developed, is of flowered crepe de chine.

Glisson's line, a corner of H. R. Mizelle; thence N. with Glisson's line to said public road; thence on northerly with center of said road to the beginning at the pine. Containing seven and a half acres, more or less.
