'GOD BLESS US, EACH and EVERY ONE'

A sentiment we subscribe to most heartily at this Christmas season. We appreciate at this time all that has been done for us—by those individuals for whom we have rendered some service.

You can not appreciate anything unless you know something about it. You can not appreciate our service unless you know of it from personal experience. And YOU control that.

May we have the pleasure of sharing that experience in the future if you have not had that experience in the past.

In any case, we wish you a merry Christmas, and say again
