THE VOICE OF THE LIBERTY BELL

This is one of the two new official posters of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 to celebrate 150 years of American Independence. The Exposition will continue to December 1. Dan Smith, the artist, has symbolized the epoch in history which the tolling of the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall, July 4, 1776, marked and has depicted the growth of the United States from the original thirteen states, represented by the thirteen stars which emerge from the mouth of the Liberty Bell.

Virginia Lady Tells of Taking Cardui and Says She Has Since Recovered Perfect Health.

Lynchburg, Va.—"I have taken Cardui several times for a run-down condition and have found it perfectly splendid," says Mrs. Lee T. Marsh, 715 First Street, this city.

"About ten years ago," she explains, "I became so weak I could not go about. I looked like a skeleton and... was dreadfully worried about myself. A friend suggested Cardui and I decided to try it."

"I kept up the medicine until I had taken six bottles. It regulated and built me up. I improved greatly."

"Last year we drove up here through the country from Florida. I was exposed to the weather and must have taken cold, for I became ill... I got run-down, lost flesh, could not sleep and had no appetite at all. I was so nervous that I did not know what to do."

"I thought of Cardui. I began to take it regularly and it was not long before I began to feel better. I took six bottles, one after another, and at the finish of the last one was perfectly well again. Since then I have continued gaining in weight and all winter have been in perfect health."

Grandfather Now Goes Riding

Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh Refreshes After Riding
Denied the pleasures of automobile riding because of resultant pains and aches in his back the grandfather of one New York state family now enjoys the long Sunday rides with the ease and joy of the youth about him. This grandfather applies Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh with that faith in the famous old remedy that has made it stand the test of 80 years.

Healing qualities of myrrh have been known since Bible days, but when scientifically combined with other healing and antiseptic ingredients, as it is in Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh, it is small wonder that its effects are sensational. Sold at drug stores. Manufactured by the S. C. Hanford Co., Syracuse, N. Y.

SHERIFF ROBERSON EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Editor of the Enterprise:—I will thank you for space in your paper to express my appreciation to the people of Martin County for their support during the seven years which I have served them as sheriff.

It has always been my pleasure to do all for the people that I possibly could so long as it was within the law.

There are many difficulties in the path of a sheriff. There are few duties that he is called upon to perform that do not either lead him in contact with madness or sadness; and regardless of whether the duty requires that somebody's loved ones have to be imprisoned or whether the duty takes bread from the cupboard of hungry children the law says, "Sheriff, go on;" and he has no power to extend mercy, regardless of how much is in his heart.

I hope that I have never executed the law with an iron hand and caused any person undue embarrassment, pain or loss. If I have I regret it. On the other hand, if I have erred in the discharge of any duty, I hope it has happened when the principle of mercy overshadowed the path of duty.

In the recent campaign my defeat was registered by the people by a majority of 45 votes. I feel very grateful to all those who supported me and extend them my hearty thanks but I have no harsh or ill-feelings against those who voted against me. It is a privilege that every citizen has; it is one of the highest privileges given to an American citizen. I honor alike those who voted for and those who voted against me, and am still a friend to all.

I am very grateful that Mr. Roebuck, the man who won in the contest over me, is a gentleman, one of the county's most honorable citizens. One who I know will do his best to serve all the people. It is not so bad to be defeated by a good man, and especially when it lifts burdens from your own shoulders.

I shall use all my efforts to help all officers and all people to the end of a good county and a good State.

I wish especially to thank the people of Griffins Township, where I was born and raised; where I received the small amount of schooling which I have; and where I received every vote cast except 10, which were given to Mr. Roebuck by kinspeople, and who naturally would vote for him.

This expression of confidence by those who know you best is worth far more in satisfaction than a mere county office, and no one should fail to appreciate such a confidence and friendship.

I, of course, have been thrown in close personal touch with the people of Williamston since living here, and for the many favors not only shown me during that time but shown to my family as well I am very grateful.
