

Crowds Spend Time At Pamlico Beach

The largest crowd in the history of Pamlico Beach spent the week end and the Fourth of that popular resort, where the steady breezes from the waters of Pamlico sound afford a sure relief from the oppressive summer heat. Pamlico beach hotel was over-run early Saturday night, and during the week end many visitors spent the nights in automobiles and in the pavilion.

Many visitors came from distant points in the state and were unanimously of the opinion that from the standpoint of bathing, fishing, and coolness, Pamlico beach was the peer of all the beaches. The beach rises about 40 feet from the water's edge, and is generously sprinkled with shade trees on all sides, and is fanned with a constant breeze from the ocean which makes it delightful both during the day and night. The bathing is in salt water, with a perfect sand bottom which is free from sea-weeds.

The thirty-odd cottages on the beach are fast filling up with the summer colony, and by the end of the week a population of at least three hundred will claim Pamlico as its summer home.

The roads have been placed in excellent shape, and it is less than an hour's drive from the end of the pavement at Bath.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Peel of Raleigh were here for the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Martha Peel, Thursday.

DR. W. T. LAPRADE GIVEN CREDIT FOR BEST HISTORY

Durham, July 8.—Dr. W. T. Laprade, professor of history at Duke University, is given credit for having written the best history of modern England that has ever been written by an American. It will be off the press this fall. Dr. Laprade left last week to spend his 15 months' leave of absence in Europe. He was president of the Durham Kiwanis club the first half of this year and last week's meeting was given over to a farewell program in his honor.

INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. M. H. LEGGETT DIES

Spencer M., the four-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin H. Leggett died at their home near Batts Cross roads Wednesday evening.

Burial took place at the Manning burial ground near Maple Grove Church Thursday.

Misses Lucille McCotter, Helen Hodges, and Mr. Irving Hodges of Washington spent several hours here Tuesday evening.

Mrs. K. B. Crawford left this morning for Seaford, Del. to be with her sister, Mrs. Ross whose husband is very ill.

Mrs. P. H. Brown and daughter, Thelma, Mrs. J. E. Smithwick and son James visited Morehead City this week.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many sympathizing friends and to all who ministered so faithfully to our family in the recent illness and death of our son, Shelton, which has so clearly shown us the priceless value of the kindness and love of friends.

W. R. DANIEL and WIFE.

Tragedy Occurs At Wooten Family Reunion

Hillcrest, a resort near Kinston, was the scene of a family reunion and a tragedy on last Wednesday. It was the annual reunion of the Wooten family, and members of that prominent family gathered from all over North Carolina and from as far away as Georgia, to participate in the reunion and renew friendships.

There were about 300 in attendance and Judge Frank Wooten, of Greenville was selected president. He had just started his speech of acceptance when he was informed that his son had been drowned. He was only six years of age. Reports were to the effect that the lad fell into the lake and disappeared beneath the surface. The body of the lad was brought to the surface in a few minutes by a life guard but all efforts at resuscitation were futile.

Most Cotton States Increase Acreage

Cotton seems to be king in the minds of the farmers of the South. In the fifteen leading cotton states, two thirds of them have increased the acreage over that of last year. Only two of the big cotton states, Texas and Oklahoma, have cut the acreage. Texas decreased its acreage one per cent while Oklahoma decreased hers two and two-thirds per cent. North Carolina has increased one per cent in acreage, but it was reported as the third lowest of all the cotton growing states. On June 25, the condition was standing as 63 per cent of normal. Virginia was 62 and South Carolina 55, being the lowest of all states.

Mr. Julius S. Peel attended the North Carolina Bar Association meeting at Wrightsville last week.

With the same production per acre that we had last year, the increase in acreage will run the yield up 200,000 bales above the 1925 yield which was a large one.

The crop condition for the entire belt is 75.4 of a full crop.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY

Whereas the death angel has entered the home of one of our brothers and taken therefrom a member of that family, to wit, his child; we, the members of the Junior Order of the United American Mechanics, do here and now extend to Brother W. B. Daniel and his family our heart-felt sympathy and point him to the Great Councilor of the Universe for further consolation. In contemplating the loss of his son he will find much solace in the never to be forgotten thought so truthfully portrayed by the poet:

"Life is real; life is earnest,
And the grave is not its goal.
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul."

F. H. EDWARDS,
J. H. HARRELL,
J. M. ROGERSON,
Committee.

HORSE SENSE

A friend of ours who stated that he had lived on nothing but milk for over a year and gained weight every day was asked how he did it. "I can't say that I remember, but I presume my method was similar to that of other babies." Your First National pocketbook will "gain weight" if you will let us serve you. Ours is good ice and our service is dependable. You need it to keep your supplies fresh and good. Phone us today to leave a certain amount of ice for your refrigerator regularly. Your telephone is our self-starter.
