RECEPTION FOR MISS TRENTHAM LARGELY ATTENDED

The reception given by the Woman's Club for Miss Anna Trentham, our new Home Demonstration agent, was well attended and a very enjoyable occasion.

The hall was beautifully decorated by the house committee and a few of their friends. Tall baskets and vases of the loveliest summer flowers were used every where to make the room more attractive with the soft glow of silk shaded lamps to help the rooms were prettier than they had ever been.

The visitors met the guest of honor and were entertained by the executive committee which is composed of the following: Mrs. John D. Biggs, Mrs. Warren Biggs, Mrs. J. F. Thigpen, Mrs. L. B. Harrison, Mrs. Wheeler Martin, Mrs. A. R. Dunning, Mrs. P. B. Cone, Mrs. Erah Cobb, Mrs. J. G. Staton, Mrs. W. C. Liverman, Mrs. E. S. Peel, and Mrs. C. R. Fleming.

Mrs. W. B. Watts played several delightful solos and Mrs. P. B. Cone sang during the afternoon.

Misses Evelyn and Velma Harrison, Mary Hardy Murrill, Frances and Eugenia Hoyt and Margaret Manning served ice cream and cake.

There were visitors from several sections of the county present, and despite the warm weather it was a very successful affair.

The Robersonville Woman's club which is one of the most progressive organizations in this county, was well represented and the members were enthusiastic over the work and plans of Miss Trentham.

Miss Pauline Smith and Miss Violet Alexander of Washington were special guests.
