Fuller Brushers

Bring You the Truthful Beauty of Perfect Grooming

You know that truthful beauty can come only with perfect grooming of healthy-hair and skin. There is no satisfactory substitute. That is the reason why Fuller Personal Brushes now are found on the dressing tables of smart women everywhere.

These women can be satisfied with nothing less—and they know by experience that the daily use of Fuller Personal Brushes is necessary in creating and protecting true beauty.

Then, too, the ease of keeping these brushes immaculately clean has a universal appeal. Every brush is all brush, with no back to collect dust. But the detailed features of Fuller Personal Brushes can best be explained by the Fuller Man who comes to your home.

Next time he calls, ask him why millions of women now will use no other brushes than those which bear the Red Tip Tag and are brought direct to the home by the Fuller Man.
