PALE & PEAKED

Texas Lady Was Advised by Her Mother To Take Cardui, Which She Did With Good Results.

Hamilton, Tenn.—Mrs. Gladys Roberts of this city, says: "At times I suffered awfully with pains across my back and through my sides. I would have to go to bed and stay two or three days at a time. It was very worrisome. I managed to keep going, but I did not enjoy myself at all.

"One day my mother remarked on how pale and peaked I looked. She said: 'You look so pale and peaked, why don't you take a bottle of Cardui?' She had taken it herself a number of times, and it had always improved her health, so she thought I had better try it.

"I got the Cardui and began taking it, and from the first dose or two I could see a change for the better. The first thing I noticed was that my appetite was improved. I began to be hungry and I enjoyed my meals. I slept better at night. My feet were so much quieter that I got the benefit from it. I kept on with the Cardui and took it for several months. The pains in my back and sides grew less until they finally quit bothering me."

Try Cardui for your case. At all drug stores. CARDUI VEGETABLE TONIC

"The Vine"

This magnificent bronze by Harriet Frishmuth is on display in the Palace of Fine Arts at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia where the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence is being celebrated. This is but one of the many gorgeous and beautiful things to be seen in the Fine Arts exhibit. Famous artists from all parts of the world have sent their paintings, etchings and sculptures to Philadelphia to be exhibited during the exposition, which continues until December 1.

Mrs. Charlotte Wood, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. R. Biggs, for the past two weeks, will return to her home in Edenton Saturday.

CIRCUS TO SHOW HERE WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 22
The circus is coming. Gentry Bros.' famous show, now on its 39th annual transcontinental tour, will exhibit in Williamston Wednesday, September 22. Hailed with delight by the juvenile populace and the "older" boys and girls, the coming of this well known and honorably conducted circus is always looked upon as an annual festive holiday. The Gentry Bros., instead of operating two distinct shows, as in other seasons, have combined their interests for 1926 into one big mammoth tented institution.

Features, novelties, curiosities, and oddities gathered from all sections of the world form this season's program for Gentry Bros. Foremost among the stellar artists will be Cottrell-Powell troupe of English riders; the Trebores family of Mexican equilibristas and aerialists; Cadieux, a French somersaulting dancer on the tight wire; the Zenaros, Belgian mid-air gymnasts; Mons. White, who stands on his head in a lofty trapeze; Clarksonian, European foot juggler, together with more than two scores of artists famed in the annals of the white tops.

Gentry Bros. great herd of performing elephants with Modoc, the largest pachyderm in captivity with his new Charleston dance novelty; the society horse show; the balloon ponies; scores of educated Shetland ponies, dogs, and monkeys, all are again featured. It has been the history of the Gentry Bros. never to repeat its novelties and this year an entire new program is offered.

A glimpse of Gentry Bros. constant growth and improvement will be seen in the immense and spectacular street parade to be seen on the downtown streets at noon. There will be trumpeting bands, tooting calliopes, cumbersome elephants and humping camels. Rumbling wagons of red and gold; allegorical floats and magnificent tableau wagons will all be seen in the spectacular line of march. There will be two performances, at 2 and 8 p. m., the doors opening an hour earlier.—Press agent.
