SECOND OPENING WILLIE WINKLE SHOPPE 8th and 9th

The Willie Winkle and Hat Shoppe will have its second opening Wednesday and Thursday, September 8 and 9. This shop has had a very successful season and expects to show a much more extensive line of goods this fall than it did last season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Laughinghouse and Family Move Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Laughinghouse and their daughter and son, have taken up their residence here and are at home with Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Crawford. They come here from Oriental where they have made their home for several years. Mr. Laughinghouse buys tobacco for the W. I. Skinner Tobacco company, and spent last season here.

Mr. J. W. McAden, tobacco buyer for the Export Leaf Tobacco company arrived here yesterday. He will succeed Mr. W. T. Meadows who has been buying for the Export since 1914.

Rev. C. O. Pardo has returned from a trip which lasted all of July and August. He conducted services in the Church of the Advent, Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Shirley and their two children left last week for Selma where Mr. Shirley has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church. They have many friends here who wish them much success in their new field.

Piney Grove Local and Personal News

Rev. W. B. Everett of Ayden conducted revival services at Piney Grove Free Will Baptist church last week. The house was filled to its capacity most every night to hear Rev. Mr. Everett. He held his audience spell bound while he so eloquently expounded the word.

Mr. Ernest M. Jarvis of Washington, an ex-service one arm gentleman, directed the music, in addition to favoring the audience each night with a solo. He accompanied the singing of the other hymns with his organ which he handles very skillfully with one hand.

Mr. Sam Craft returned to Norfolk last Saturday after spending his vacation in our section with relatives and friends.

Mr. Jarvis conducted a singing class last week at 3 p. m. for the children, training them to sing in the choir at the night service.

SERIES 115, SERIES 120, SERIES 128

Three figures which mean extra motor car value
Buick motor cars are now designated by their wheelbase lengths. Series One Fifteen has 114½ inches of wheelbase. Series One Twenty is 120 inches from axle to axle, and Series One Twenty-eight measures 128 inches.
Many cars, several inches shorter than Buick and without advantages offered by Buick design, are priced considerably higher.
Compare the wheelbase length of other cars to Buick, before you spend your money.
