Twentieth Century Club Holds First Fall Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Twentieth Century club was held with Mrs. F. U. Barnes Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The new president, Mrs. J. H. Saunders, presided, and reports of the last meeting were given by the new secretary, Mrs. W. B. Watts.

The club has selected "Know Your Own State," a course of study arranged by the extension bureau of the University, and gives a wealth of knowledge that this department has taken years to assemble.

The first program took up "Tide-water North Carolina," and Mrs. S. I. Biggs read a paper prepared by Mrs. K. B. Crawford, "Where the Winds Blow," which gave a clear description of the islands that shield North Carolina from the winds of the Atlantic, and told of the effects of the wind on Roanoke, Currituck, and Ocracoke Islands.

Mrs. Elbert Peel had a reading from Brickette's Natural History of North Carolina, which portrayed the life of our forefathers in this section.

Mrs. Saunders read current events prepared by Mrs. H. M. Stubbs that were very interesting.

Mrs. Barnes served home-made ice cream and cakes and peanuts at the conclusion of the program.

Special guests of the hostess were Mesdames C. H. Dickey, J. D. Biggs, Jr., P. B. Cone, Roy Gurganus, L. C. Bennett, A. E. Dunning, Early, and Miss Hendricks.

Club members present besides the hostess included Mesdames J. W. Manning, W. B. Watts, J. W. Watts, Jr., S. R. Biggs, Elbert Peel, J. S. Rhodes, J. H. Saunders, C. O. Pardo, C. H. Godwin, J. G. Godard, N. O. Green, and Clayton Moore, and Miss Carrie Dell White.

WEAK, RESTLESS

Tennessee Lady Had So Little Strength She "Couldn't Get Around." Took Cardui With Benefit.

Getaway, Tenn.—"I wasn't able to do any of my work, and it seemed like I had so little strength I just couldn't get around," says Mrs. Frank Murphy, who lives near here.

"My mother knew of the good Cardui could do, so she told me to take it. I sent and got a bottle, and seemed like all the time I grew stronger."

"I had been suffering with pains in my sides all the time, and Cardui helped this wonderfully. I needed a tonic for female trouble, and Cardui just fitted the need. I was awfully restless and could not sleep at night, but after taking two bottles of Cardui I could sleep like a top. I got along all right, and I know it was due to Cardui. I can certainly recommend it to women suffering from women's troubles."

"My present health is just fine." Thousands of women have written to tell how Cardui relieved them of pain and suffering, and helped them to improve in health and strength.

Cardui is perfectly harmless, being an extract of mild-acting herbs, and contains no dangerous drugs or harmful ingredients.
