Twentieth Century Club Meets
With Mrs. Warren Biggs

The Twentieth Century Club met with Mrs. Warren Biggs Wednesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. S. Critcher, on Watts Street.
The general program was on the Piedmont Country. Mrs. Pardo read a paper "The Natural Resources of the Piedmont Plateau," which dealt with the location and general description, soils, seasons, rainfall, forests, and water power.

Mrs. J. H. Saunders read a paper,
"Ten Pictures of the Piedmont Plateau," and Mrs. J. S. Rhodes read current events.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. B. Duke Critcher, of Garys-burg, Mrs. R. A. Critcher, and Mrs.
J. C. Lyons, of Chapel Hill.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. R. S. Critcher, and little Miss Ella Wynne Critcher, served refreshments, which consisted of fried chicken, potato salad, cream cheese sandwiches, celery, pickles, and tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes spent Wednesday in Murfreesboro.

Mrs. J. W. Watts, Jr.,

complimentary to her sister, Mrs. J.
C. Lyons, of Chapel Hill, who is spending a few days with her, yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. There were three tables of bridge, and Mrs.
J. H. Saunders, who made the high score, was presented a deck of cards.
Mrs. Lyons was given the guest of honor prize, a crystal bowl.

A delicious fruit salad with sandwiches and hot coffee was served at the conclusion of the games.

Those honored besides the special guest were Mesdames Rome Biggs, J. H. Saunders, Oscar Anderson, E.
P. Cunningham, M. D. Watts, W. B.
Watts, Robert Heydenreich, Wheeler

UNDERSTANDING

The directing of funeral services requires thorough understanding. We pride ourselves in the fact that we receive high commendation from many for the sympathetic and sincere attention accorded. No detail is overlooked. Because of our extensive experience we naturally have a proper appreciation of our responsibility.

WEAK, RESTLESS

Tennessee Lady Had So Little Strength She "Couldn't Get Around." Took Cardui
With Benefit.

Gainesway, Tenn.—"I wasn't able to do any of my work, and it seemed like I had so little strength I just couldn't get around," says Mrs. Frank Murphy, who lives near here.

"My mother knew of the good Cardui could do, so she told me to take it. I sent and got a bottle, and seemed like all the time I grow stronger.

"I had been suffering with pains in my sides all the time, and Cardui helped this wonderfully. I needed a tonic for female troubles, and Cardui just fitted the need. I was awfully restless and could not sleep at night, but after taking two bottles of Cardui I could sleep 'like a top'.
I got along all right, and I know it was due to Cardui. I can certainly recommend it to women suffering from women's troubles.

"My present health is just fine."
Thousands of women have written to tell how Cardui relieved them of pain and suffering, and helped them to improve in health and strength.
Cardui is perfectly harmless, being an extract of mild-acting herbs, and contains no dangerous drugs or harmful ingredients.

Sold everywhere. NC-174
