Announce Engagement Robersonville Couple

Robersonville, Oct. 14.—(Special to The Enterprise).—Mrs. Kelly Rawls, Misses Mary Elizabeth Rawls and Mattie Mae Bailey were joint hostesses to the McDowell Music Club Saturday afternoon, Oct. 9, at the home of Mrs. Rawls.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. W. P. Sumner and ushered into the living room.

When all had assembled, the president, Miss Myrtle Green, called the meeting to order. As the roll was called, each member responded with an interesting musical item.

After the business session the following program was rendered:

Current events—Mrs. V. A. Ward. Piano solo: Grand Polka de Concert, Wallace—Mary Elizabeth Rawls.

Guitar solo: Juanita—Opal Warren. Piano solo: Prelude, Rachmaninoff—Mattie M. Bailey.

Mrs. Rawls then announced the last number on the program was "Our Favorite," by Miss Mary Elizabeth Rawls, which proved to be Lohengrin's wedding march.

As she played, little Lois Green entered, dressed as a bride, and bearing an announcement on a silver waiter. She carried it to Miss Mattie M. Bailey, who read, "Mr. Vance Little Roberson and Miss Myrtle Green have the pleasure of announcing their approaching marriage."

As the little bride entered, she was followed by Mrs. J. H. Roberson, the mother of the groom elect, and Mrs. W. M. Green, mother of the bride-elect.

The little bride then led the guests into the dining room, which was a scene of loveliness. It was very artistically arranged in a color scheme of green and yellow. In the center of the table, on a green and yellow centerpiece, was placed the bride's cake, bearing the date of the marriage, November 23.

A delicious salad course was served with hot chocolate.

Those present other than club members included Mesdames J. H. Roberson, W. M. Green, David Grimes, J. N. Coburn, of Whiteville, Oscar Smith, J. A. Taylor, W. P. Sumner, and J. B. Rawls, Misses Clark, Shaw, Phillips, Millie Roebuck, Katie M. Roberson, and Margaret Roberson.

Robersonville Woman's Club Met Tuesday

Robersonville, Oct. 14.—(Special to The Enterprise).—On Tuesday afternoon, October 12, the Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting in the auditorium of the school building with the music department in charge of the program.

The president called the meeting to order and the club repeated the collect in concert.

The report of the place committee favored the Odd Fellows Hall, which was accepted by the club.

The treasurer's report showed $86.82 now on hand.

The club decided to assist in enlarging the school library, so as to enable the public to use it. The president read a list of books that were needed.

The Australian ballot was explained and approved by the club.

A letter was read from Mrs. Hobgood, urging a big attendance at the district meeting to be held in Belhaven October 14.

The musical program was as follows:

Vocal solo: Lay My Head Beneath a Rose—Mrs. Mayo Little, with Mrs. C. L. Wilson accompanying.

Piano solo: By Moonlight—Mrs. C. A. Roberson.

The visitors were Mrs. J. C. Smith and Mrs. George Mardre, of Windsor.

SEEDS FOR SALE: CRIMSON clover, over 98 per cent pure, $10 per bushel. Red clover 18 per bushel. Alafie $15 per bushel. Grim is very hardy and worth much more. Include $1 per acre for inoculation. Fall sowing is best. Order now and you will not regret. If in need of other seeds, write your wants. Callaway & Gaines Farms, Atlanta, Ga. 08 10t
