

March of Progress to Remain About Same

Governor McLean, in his campaign speech at Hickory, yesterday, expressed the opinion that the march of progress in the State will continue at about the same speed. He thinks it would be dangerous to get in a gallop and on the other hand, it would be unfortunate to slow up in our onward march.

The Governor says any rash rush from our present sane and steady march by the next legislature will be met with opposition. Yet, he believes if the legislature goes in for a steady growth along educational lines, road building and other things necessary for the State's progress, that it will meet the approval of the people.

H. H. Broome, jr., of Tarboro, field manager of the D. Pender Grocery Co., was in town yesterday.

Phil Apfel, of Winton, spent the week end in town.

"I Date My Start from that Day I HAVE"

How many times have we heard customers of ours say that—referring to the day they first began saving something regularly.

"I never got ahead until I learned to save," they tell us. "I was always behind, discouraged, and seemed to be getting nowhere."

"But as soon as I got something saved up, thing got better—partly because I had more money, and partly because of the confidence and self-respect I had gained."

Saving sows the seed of success. The time to plant is now, the place is here—in a Savings Account at 5 per cent compound interest
