Virginia Lady Tells of Taking Cardui and Says She Has Since Recovered Perfect Health.

Lynchburg, Va.—"I have taken Cardui several times for a run-down condition and have found it perfectly splendid," says Mrs. Lee T. Marsh, 715 First Street, this city.

"About ten years ago," she explains, "I became so weak I could not go about. I looked like a skeleton and... was dreadfully worried about myself. A friend suggested Cardui and I decided to try it."

"I kept up the medicine until I had taken six bottles. It regulated and built me up. I improved greatly. Last year we drove up here through the country from Florida. I was exposed to the weather and must have taken cold, for I became ill... I got run-down, lost flesh, could not sleep and had no appetite at all. I was so nervous that I did not know what to do."

"I thought of Cardui. I began to take it regularly and it was not long before I began to feel better. I took six bottles, one after another, and at the finish of the last one was perfectly well again. Since then I have continued gaining in weight and all winter have been in perfect health."

Taylor-Pope Wedding at Robersonville Thursday

In the Methodist Church at Robersonville a lovely wedding took place Thursday morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Fannie Bonner Pope became the bride of Mr. Irving Taylor, of Bethel. The church was very pretty with its decorations of potted plants, ivy and gold and orchid chrysanthemums. The pastor of the bride, Rev. F. F. Eure, assisted by the groom's pastor, Rev. Burns, of the Baptist Church of Bethel performed the ceremony.

Miss Mary King Ellison, gowned in green satin and wearing a corsage of pink roses, was the first of the party to enter. She rendered several selections on the piano before the other members came. To the strains of the processional by Lohengrin the ushers, Messrs. Thos. McKim, of Belhaven, Jasper House and Sylvester Pollard, of Bethel, and Robert Nelson entered.

Next came the bridesmaids, Misses Thelma Ross and Carrie Lee Grimes. They wore blue satin dresses with black picture hats and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids of honor, Mrs. Thos. McKim, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Grimes, of Bethel, aunt of the groom, wore lovely black satin gowns with hats to match and carried orchid chrysanthemums.

Miss Fannie Godard, of Dunn, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a crepe back satin gown of dark green shade and carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Accompanied by her father, came the bride, her blond beauty enhanced by the lovely wistaria satin crepe gown that she wore. Her hat and other accessories were of or blended with wistaria. She met the groom and his best man, Mr. Bryant Beverly, of Bethel, at the altar, where she was given in marriage by her father, H. H. Pope.

The wedding of this young couple was of much interest to people in this section, where they are both prominently connected and very popular among the younger people. Mrs. Taylor is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pope and the granddaughter of Mrs. Bettie Pope, of this city.

After a motor trip to Philadelphia, Washington, and other northern cities the couple will be at home with the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Bethel.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Pope, Mrs. Bettie Pope, Miss Anna Pope, and Mrs. W. H. Booker, of Williamston; Mrs. Belle Godard and Miss Fannie Godard, of Dunn; Miss Mary King Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKim, of Belhaven; Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and daughter, Messrs. Jasper House, Bryant Beverly and S. Pollard and Mr. and Mrs. Grimes, of Bethel.
