A PERSONAL LETTER

Raleigh, N. C.
December, 7, 1926.

Mr. G. W. Stevenson,
Washington, N. C.

My Dear George:

I hope by the time this reaches you your mind will be made up to put on your sale. I am being harshly criticised by my competitors for running these annual sales, though I feel that we owe it to our friends and patrons to give them merchandise at cost for a few weeks and certainly want you and all the other boys to run a two-weeks' sale, and sell at actual cost. I certainly would like to go to Washington tho don't expect I can get there before the 15th.

Be sure and put on a two weeks' sale and sell your customers goods at cost. You won't lose anything by it.

Regards to all,
R. E. QUINN.
