IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our little darling Burney Warren Nicholson, who departed this life, June 22, 1926—only six months ago.

When we see a curious blossom that we tended with such care rudely taken from our bosoms, how our aching hearts despair. Around your little grave we linger till the setting sun is low, feeling all our hopes have perished for the one we cherish so.

Farewell little darling, we will say to you farewell, for we know you are with Jesus and His angels for evermore to dwell. We know you are safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on his gentle breast, where his love overshadoweth all so sweetly, where your little soul doth rest. But, oh, how we miss you no human tongue can tell, but Jesus, our Heavenly Father, who knows all things well.

Oh, how I long to meet you little darling in Heaven among the blessed, where those who meet shall for ever rest. So good bye little darling for ever more; I hope to meet you on that long and happy shore.

Written by a broken hearted mother,
MRS. W. R. NICHOLSON.

EVERETT-POE

Hamilton, Dec. 26.—A very pretty marriage was solemnized Saturday evening, December 18, at 6 o'clock, at the home of Miss Maggie Belle Jones, when Miss Carolyn Blanch Poe became the bride of Mr. Wade E. Everette.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. West, pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of only a few relatives and friends.

The bride and groom entered the living room to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, played by Miss Annie Mizelle. "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," was softly played during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as a recessional.

The bride wore a lovely combination dress of tan crepe Romaine and velvet with harmonizing accessories. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Everette left by motor for a wedding trip.

Mrs. Everette is the daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Poe, of Apex, N. C., and a popular member of the Hamilton school faculty.

Mr. Everette is a popular young man of Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Everette will make their home in Hamilton.
