PARTY FOR MR. AND MRS. HUBERT WARREN

Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Crawford entertained Friday evening with a rook and bridge party, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Warren, of Durham, who were their house guests. The home was attractively decorated with pine boughs and cut flowers, and the guests found their places with cards at the tables. Delicious salted peans and stuffed dates were enjoyed by the guests while they played. Mrs. Warren was given silk lingerie, and Mrs. Frank Freeman, of New York, was given a score pad. Mrs. H. M. Stubbs made high bridge score for the women and was presented an attractive score pad, also. Dr. Rhodes won the gentleman's prize, a pair of hose. Mrs. Elbert Peel and Dr. Cone made the most progressions in bridge and were given a mayonnaise bowl and a tie.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. J. S. Rhodes served chicken salad, sandwiches, pickles and saltines.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Dr. and Mrs. Jno. D. Biggs, Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Peel, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. WHEELER MARTIN, Trustee.

MRS. BETTIE WARD
On Saturday morning about four o'clock, the death angel visited our home and took the soul of Mama, as we all called her. She was generally known by her neighbors and friends as aunt Bettie, the wife of the late Simon D. Ward. She was a member of the Congleton family, a very prominent family of Pitt county, and possibly was better known than any other woman in her community as her old home was located on the highway between Williamston and Washington. Her home was a resting place for many a weary traveler, passing that way. Mama had been almost an invalid for three years, caused by a trouble in her feet, but she was as well as usual. On Friday evening we attended the burial of her brother, Asa Congleton, who preceded her to the grave about forty-eight hours. When we returned home we found her seriously sick. Our daughters who were with her had already called in Dr. Warren and neighbors, and every thing was done for her that a doctor, family and friends could do, but in her advanced age, she being seventy eight year old, nothing could stay the strong hand of death. Oh, Mama how we miss you. Your voice is now still. A place is vacant in our home that never can be filled.

On Sunday afternoon in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends, Elders Rodgersson, Harrington and Cowing spoke words to her sacred memory, then she was laid to rest beside the body of her husband in the family burying ground at the old homestead.

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation to our neighbors and friends for their kindness shown to us during her sickness, death and burial.

WHEELER MARTIN, Trustee.
