NORMAN-HASSELL

Mr. and Mrs. Alonza Hassell announce the marriage of their daughter,

Martha Slade

to

Mr. Milton Norman on Saturday, January the twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, Wilson, North Carolina.

The above announcements have been sent to out-of-town friends of the contracting parties. None were sent in town.

The ceremony, which was performed by the pastor of the First Methodist church, Wilson, in the church parsonage, was witnessed by the bride's mother and a few close friends.

Mrs. Norman is one of Williamston's finest young women and while employed by the Farmers and Merchants bank, she has become very popular with the people of the county and will be greatly missed by them. She is prominently connected in this part of the State, being a great-grand daughter of the late Elder Cushing B. Hassell, noted minister and historian.

Mr. Norman is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Norman of Halifax and he is also a descendant of families of familiar name in the history of this State. He lived in Williamston several years as a field agent of the Cotton association. While here he made many friends. He is now with the Armour Fertilizer company at Wilmington where they will make their home.

Child Plays With Hornet's Nest
Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh Brings Relief

Playing with a hornet's nest that had fallen from the barn, believing it to be a big ball to push and kick, a little eighty-year-old girl was severely stung about the face, arms, and legs. Her mother, prepared for such crying pleas for relief, quickly applied Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh. The tears soon dried and a grateful little face watched the "jewel" disappear and felt the pain go away.

Healing qualities of myrrh have been known since Bible days, but when scientifically combined with other healing and antiseptic ingredients, as it is in Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh, it is small wonder its effects are sensational. Manufactured by the G. C. Hanford Co., Syracuse, N. Y. Sold at drug stores.

Hubert Rawls who has been working with the Gold Star store for some time left yesterday for Raleigh where he will enter Kings Business college. Hubert worked for C. O. Moore and company several years after he came here to live from his home near Robersonville and he has many friends in Williamston who regret his leaving. While here he made his home with his aunt, Mrs. Harry Meador and Mr. Meador.

The hostess served a salad course followed by delicious home-made ice cream and angel food cake.

CARD OF THANKS

It is with sincere appreciation that we wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the many kind acts and so thoughtful deeds done for us during the recent death of our son, Howell. We assure them that each expression of sympathy and deed will long be remembered by us.

MR. and MRS. HENRY D. TAYLOR, and family.

WEAK, RESTLESS

Tennessee Lady Had So Little Strength She "Couldn't Get Around." Took Cardui With Benefit.

Gassaway, Tenn.—"I wasn't able to do any of my work, and it seemed like I had so little strength I just couldn't get around," says Mrs. Frank Murphy, who lives near here.

"My mother knew of the good Cardui could do, so she told me to take it. I sent and got a bottle, and seemed like all the time I grew stronger."

"I had been suffering with pains in my sides all the time, and Cardui helped this wonderfully. I needed a tonic for female trouble, and Cardui just fitted the need. I was swiftly restless and could not sleep at night, but after taking two bottles of Cardui I could sleep like a top. I got along all right, and I know it was due to Cardui. I can certainly recommend it to women suffering from women's troubles."

"My present health is just fine." Thousands of women have written to tell how Cardui relieved them of pain and suffering, and helped them to improve in health and strength. Cardui is perfectly harmless, being an extract of mild-acting herbs, and contains no dangerous drugs or harmful ingredients.
