MRS. H. M. STUBBS HOSTESS

Mrs. H. M. Stubbs was hostess to the Twentieth Century Club Wednesday afternoon from 3.30 to 6 at her home in the Tar Heel Apartments. Besides the club members there were a number of invited guests. The general topic of the afternoon's program was "Health, Roads, and Public Welfare in North Carolina." Mrs. J. H. Saunders read the first paper, "Public Health Work in North Carolina." This article was in truth a biography of Dr. W. S. Rankin's contribution to the State of North Carolina while he was head of the public health department.

The "About Twenty-Five Years Ago There Was a Man Named Aycock," taken from French Strother's article on North Carolina's Dreams Come True, in the World's Work, of November, 1924, was a memorial to Aycock and was thoroughly appreciated by the audience. This reading was by Mrs. W. B. Watts.

Interesting current events collected by Mrs. Warren Biggs were read by Mrs. Clayton Moore.

Mrs. Stubbs' refreshments consisted of chocolate ice cream with whip cream and angel food cake.

Her invited guests were Messdames John D. Biggs, Asa T. Crawford, P. B. Cone, Hugh Horton, and S. S. Lawrence.

MRS. GODARD ENTERTAINS CARD CLUB THURSDAY

Among the most elaborate entertainments of the week was the party given her card club by Mrs. J. G. Godard, jr. In the absence of three of the members, and the addition of a third table, several invited guests enjoyed Mrs. Godard's hospitality on this occasion. Mrs. Titus Critcher made high club score and received a lovely bridge set for prize. Miss Anna Crawford received high guest prize, a velvet bridge score pad. Mrs. Rachel Ross, of Seaford, Del., sister of Mrs. Kader Crawford, and Mrs. S. S. Lawrence, of Richmond, received guest prizes of Congress cards and Coty's powder.

After four games, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Rhodes, served frozen fruit salad, sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, saltines and tea.

The guests besides the club members were Messdames J. G. Staton, F. U. Barnes, Kader B. Crawford, S. S. Lawrence, Elbert S. Peel, Mrs. Rachel Ross, and Miss Anna Crawford.

Don't wait longer neighbor!

Look for my sign

This week order Swift's Red Steer, the right fertilizer

Why wait longer, neighbor? You know that the right kind of fertilizer will give you a larger yield of wheat. You know Swift's Red Steer Fertilizers are made right. Let me fix up your order this week.

I know the successful wheat growers in your locality. I know the kind and amount of fertilizers they use. I know what our Agricultural College recommends. I can help you select the right analysis and the right amount of Swift's Red Steer Fertilizer to make you the most profit.

I recommend Swift's Red Steer high analysis fertilizer for wheat. Because of its high analysis, I can save you real money on this fertilizer. You get the benefit of lower costs for freight, labor and bagging.

Come in this week and let's talk this over.

NEW AND BETTER

Cold days emphasize the merits of the New and Better TEXACO Gasoline. It forms a dry gas—vaporizing instead of atomizing; and contains no "heavy ends."

Results: Quick starts with less use of the "choke"; ready response to acceleration and an even flow of power to every cylinder. Fewer gallons run more miles.

The New and Better Texaco is a "high test" gasoline, available at every Texaco pump.
