MSKED MEN BEAT AND ROB MAN NEAR HERE

(Continued from the first page) not in the Klan style, but simply disguised. They are supposed to have removed the license plate from their car to prevent a check-up.

No arrests have been made, and as far as could be learned at noon today no clues have been given out as to exactly who the assailants are.

Mr. Whitehurst is a married man, a farmer about 30 years old. He will be partially disabled for sometime as he is not only suffering from the wound on his hand but from the blow on his hip also which affects his walking.

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE CARRIES ARTICLE ON WILLIAMSTON

(Continued from the first page) concerns of Eastern Carolina are located in Martin's capital. There are four nice church buildings in the place, the Baptist, Episcopalian, Disciples and Methodist. Our church there has among its membership some of the first citizens of the town, and the best and largest auditorium there. But the immediate and almost imperative need is Sunday school rooms, and the brethren are thinking and praying that these may be realized in the near future.

Brother T. W. Lee is in charge of the Methodist people in Williamston, and they greatly appreciate him and his good wife. He is extending the borders of his charge and will establish a preaching place at Everetts, a small place about 5 miles out on highway No. 90. A church building has been secured and will be remodeled and made ready for services in a few weeks.

The congregation at Williamston gave the writer a patient hearing last Sunday morning and also some new subscriptions, and the assurance that other new and renewals would follow.—T.A.S.

Mrs. George Boyd, Miss Margaret Everett and Mr. Oscar Paul visited Miss Lizette Williamson in Norfolk during the week end.

Misses Bonner Gurganus, Martha Harrison, and Messrs R. L. Coburn and Robert Turner Gillam motored to Kenly Sunday. They were accompanied home by Miss Mildred Darden
