FLOWERS

MOTHER'S DAY, MAY 8, 1927

"The sun to kiss the mighty sea stoops low,
And o'er the world the weird shadows blow;
But mother's love sinks lower than the shadows
And sweepeth broader than the ocean's billows.
Life lies in mortal grief where sorrows throng,
And press upon the heart so strangely long.
But mother's love is longer than life's sorrow,
A love o'er-leaping each unseen to-morrow."

BADLY RUN-DOWN

Kentucky Woman Had "Terrible Time" Doing Her Home Work. Strength Returned After She Took Cardui.

Shelbyville, Ky.—"Several years ago," says Mrs. Alven Jesse, of this place, "my health was very bad. I was very much run-down. I was in such a weak, nervous condition that I was not able to do my housework."

"I struggled to keep up, because I had to, but many a time I spent hours in bed, trying to force enough strength to go through the daily routine."

"This condition went on for some time, until I heard about Cardui, which some one told me was good for such ailments. I gave it an immediate trial, and, I am thankful to say, my improvement was rapid. I soon was able to do my housework with ease and comfort. I felt fine and I looked so much better."

"This spring I was not as well as I had been. I was ill in the winter with colds, which left me weak. So I sent at once to the store for Cardui and began taking it. In just a little while I was feeling much better, my strength returned and I was able to get my work done easier and with less effort."

GRESHAM-CRAWFORD

The news of the wedding of Miss Annie Louise Crawford, youngest daughter of Mrs. Fannie Crawford and the late J. C. Crawford, which took place in Beulahville Sunday, came as a surprise to the friends of the bride, who is a Williamston girl.

The marriage, which was witnessed by a large crowd, friends of both parties, took place in the Beulahville Presbyterian Church, and the ceremony was performed by the local pastor. Mrs. Gresham taught in the Beulahville Schools during the past year and met her husband there, it being his home town. He is connected with one of the general merchandise stores of Beulahville.

Mrs. Gresham has a host of friends in this section of the State to whom her marriage is of great interest, and Williamston regrets that she will make her home elsewhere. She is a very lovely young woman of amiable and pleasing personality. She graduated from East Carolina Teachers' College two years ago and since that time has been teaching.

LITTLE MARY HARDISON WINNER OF GOLD MEDAL

Little Mary Davis Hardison, 11-year-old niece of Mrs. F. L. Minga, was one of the pupils of the Traylor School of Dancing here to win gold medals at the closing exercises last Wednesday. She was presented with the medal by Miss Idear Traylor for making the most progress during the term and for not missing a lesson.

All of Petersburg will be given an opportunity to see these little dancers when the Lions Club show is held next month, and they're well worth seeing.

The above account, taken from the Progress-Index, Petersburg, of April 28, will be of interest to friends of the little girl, who is so popular among both the young and old people of Williamston. In the Lions Club show, hundreds of little girls of both Richmond and Petersburg will appear in various dances, and Mary Davis will have an important dance.
