GIBBS-KILPATRICK

A very quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Williamston Christian church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, when Mr. William O. Gibbs, of Elizabeth City, and Miss Hilda Kilpatrick, of Goldsboro, were married. Rev. Robert L. Harrell, the pastor of the Robersonville Christian Church, officiated, using the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony.

Miss Kilpatrick was accompanied by her niece, Miss Mayola Borden, of Fremont, as maid of honor.

The bride was gowned in a liege ensemble suit with accessories to match, carrying a lovely arm bouquet of sweet peas, snapdragons, and valley lilies.

Miss Borden wore rose georgette and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The groom entered the church with his best man, Dr. Marshall Kilpatrick, of Robersonville.

Miss Lou Lee Parker, of Robersonville, wearing a lovely Alice blue gown, charmingly rendered the bridal music, playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March as a processional, and the chorus from Lohengrin as a recessional, while the lovely strains of "Traumeri" filled the church during the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kilpatrick. She is a niece of Mr. Marshall Wilson, of Williamston, and is well known here. She is an attractive, cultured young woman. Mr. Gibbs is a fine type of business man and is engaged in water transportation in the waters of Carolina and Virginia.

The bridal party left immediately after the ceremony amid a rain of rice and good wishes, going by automobile to Norfolk, where they will go by boat to New York, Washington, and other points of interest. They will be at home at Elizabeth City after May 20.
