Mr. and Mrs. James C. Manning and little son, Jimmie, arrived Sunday to visit Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Manning. Mr. and Mrs. Manning will leave Wednesday for Chapel Hill, where they will attend the summer school for six weeks.

Miss Carrie Lee Peel arrived Monday night from East Carolina Teachers College, where she has been a student for the past three years.

Miss Theima Brown and Bill Carstarphen are attending a house party in Wilmington this week. They are the guests of Miss Mildred Darden, who, with a party of kindly young people, is having the party.

Miss Eva Peel will leave tomorrow for Chapel Hill, where she will attend the two sessions of the University summer school.

Calvin Hassell, of Washington, D. C., spent the week end with his father, Elder Sylvester Hassell. Mr. Hassell made the trip by auto. He returned by way of Raleigh with his brother, Frank S. Hassell and Frank, Jr., who spent the week end here with Fider Hassell also.

Miss Margaret Manning will arrive home tonight from North Carolina College for Women, at Greensboro, to spend the summer vacation at home.

Mrs. Jennie Yarrell and granddaughter, Miss Emma Bell Harris, will arrive tonight from Greensboro, where Mrs. Yarrell went to be with Emma Bell, who graduated from the North Carolina College for Women there yesterday.

Joe Biggs and sons, Joe, Jr., and John, and Mrs. Robert Bogart, of Washington, were in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Barnhill and sons, Eli and Homer, of Washington, visited relatives here Sunday.

Misses Sallie Adams, of Four Oaks, and Annie Ruth Jones, of Grimesland, were in town Saturday.

Thad Eure, of Winton, was a professional visitor here Thursday.

L. P. Hornthal and son, Louis Phillip, of Plymouth, visited Mrs. W. B. Watts yesterday.

Mr. John L. Rodgerson and daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth, and Judge Clayton Moore and daughter, Miss Jennie Swanner, drove to Elizabeth City Sunday. Mr. Rodgerson visited his mother, Mrs. J. E. Rodgerson, and Judge Moore went to Elizabeth City to hold court in Pasquotank County for two weeks.

Miss Marguerite Cook is at home from Greenville, where she was a student at East Carolina Teachers College during the past year.

Ben Courtney will leave soon for Wake Forest, where he will attend the summer school.

Miss Bonner Gurganus will return tonight from Greensboro, where she went to attend the graduation of Miss Emma Bell Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Gresham, of Beulahville, visited Mrs. Gresham's mother, Mrs. J. C. Crawford, Sunday. They have recently been married and this is their first trip home since the occasion.

Miss Carrie Dell White will leave tomorrow for Selma, from where she will go to the home of Miss Lucy Turnage to attend the marriage of Miss Turnage, which will take place Thursday. Miss White will play the wedding music.

Mrs. N. T. Perry returned Saturday afternoon from Drewryville, Va., where she has been spending some time with her son, A. T. Perry.

PRITCHETT-STOKES
 The following invitation has been received by friends of the contracting parties in this city:
 "Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lee Stokes request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their sister, Miss Marie Wiggins Stokes, to Mr. John Albert Pritchett, on Thursday, the 30th of June, at 10 o'clock in the morning, Cashie Baptist Church, Windsor, N. C."

CARD CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MRS. RHODES THURSDAY
 The card club of Mrs. J. S. Rhodes was entertained by her Thursday with a bridge luncheon at her home, Rhodocia. The lovely old home was prettily decorated for the occasion with bowls of larkspur, sweet peas, and ragged robins.
 Mrs. F. W. Hoyt, who made high score, was presented a pair of hose.
 Mrs. J. W. Watts, Jr., was the only special guest.
 Mrs. Rhodes served a delightful luncheon, consisting of fried chicken, peas, potatoes, hot rolls, and gravy, raspberries and cream and cake.

CHAUTAQUA EMPLOYS WASHINGTON SOPRANO
 Washington, June 7.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russ, accompanied by Misses Meba, Avalon, and Master Howard, Jr., have just returned from a very pleasant trip to Baltimore, where they witnessed the graduation of their daughter, Zelma, at Peabody Conservatory of Music.
 Miss Zelma has accepted a position with the Radcliffe Chautauqua, popular throughout the United States, whose headquarters are at Washington, D. C., where she will enter the service prior to their annual tour.
 This came as a surprise to Miss Russ. The chautauqua authorities were seeking a soprano, and she was especially recommended by the faculty of the conservatory, and she accepted the position. The chautauqua will tour the northern section of the United States, principally around the Great Lakes.
 Miss Russ is very competent and carries with her every good wish for a happy and pleasant engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrell Thomas, of Enfield, visited friends and relatives in Williamston Sunday. Mr. Thomas' mother, Mrs. T. W. Thomas, returned home with him to spend several weeks.

MOYE-JONES INVITATIONS RECEIVED BY FRIENDS
 The following invitation has been received by the friends of Mr. Milton Moyer, who during his brief residence here has made many pleasant associations in both social and business circles:
 "Mrs. Claude Melnett Jones requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Annie Ruth, to Mr. Milton James Moyer, on Wednesday, the twenty-second of June, at high noon. Christian Church Grimesland, N. C."

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION
 In New Williamston Special Taxing District, Martin County, North Carolina.
 In compliance with the wishes of a petition signed by the necessary number of school committeemen of the Williamston Township Special Taxing district, which was duly approved by the Board of Education of Martin County, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of the New School Code of 1926,
 Notice is hereby given that an election will be held in the courthouse on the 5th day of July, 1927, in said Williamston Special Taxing District, which is hereinafter described, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the qualified voters of said district as to whether a majority of such voters favor the levying and collecting annually of a special tax with which to supplement the funds for the six-months public school appropriate to the board of education of Martin County, the rate of the special tax not to exceed a maximum of 35 cents on the $100.00 valuation of all property, real and personal, within the bounds of the district, described as follows:
 Description of Territory:
 "Beginning at Willow Point on Roanoke River; thence a straight line to Pasture Neck Bridge, over Conoho Creek; thence up Conoho Creek to the mouth of Little Conoho Creek; thence up said creek to Mobley Mill; thence along Everetts special tax district line as described in minutes of board of education of Martin County, dated May 7th, 1923, and found on page 9, to Black Swamp; thence following the said Everetts special district line along the Noah Slade and Askew farm line to the Askew and Ben Rogers farm line at the Wildcat Swamp; thence following said Everetts special tax district line across the Wildcat Swamp with the W. T. Cullipher and Sarah Manning farm lines to W. T. Cullipher and Tom Roberson farm lines; thence along said Cullipher and Roberson lines to Allen Williams line, thence along the Allen Williams line to Cow Branch and southwesterly along said branch to the head of Reedy Swamp (so as not to include any territory of Bear Grass special tax district found in minutes of board of education of Martin County, dated November 3, 1924); thence down said Reedy Swamp to the Gorham mill; thence down said mill run to Peel & Bros. mill; thence down said mill run to Little Creek; thence down said creek to Coltrain's mill; thence down Leggetts Creek to Roanoke River; thence up the river to the beginning. The intention of this description being to include all territory in Williamston Township not now included in Bear Grass or Everetts special tax district."

At said election, those who are in favor of the levying and collecting, annually, of a special tax of not more than 35 cents on the $100.00 valuation of all property in said district as aforesaid, shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words, "For local tax," and those who oppose the levy and collecting, annually, of a special tax of not more than 35 cents on the $100.00 valuation in said district as aforesaid, shall vote a ticket on which shall be printed or written the words "Against Local Tax."

That Roy T. Griffin be and is hereby appointed registrar, and W. H. Edwards and Haywood Rogers are appointed poll holders for said election.

That a new registration is hereby ordered and that the registration books will be open for such purposes beginning with the 24th day of May, 1927, and will continue open until the 25th day of June, 1927. The registrar will be at Farmers Supply Co., during the above dates for the purpose of registering all those qualified to vote in said district.

 Done this, the 19th day of May, 1927, by order of the board of commissioners of Martin County.
 By J. G. BARNHILL,
 Chairman Board of Commissioners, Martin County.
 Attest: J. SAM GETSINGER,
 Ex-officio Clerk to the Board of County Commissioners. my24 4tw

Southwardly along the Phillips Lumber Co.'s line to the Jamesville and Washington Road, thence along said road to the beginning containing 50 acres more or less and being a part of the J. B. Griffin and G. W. Hardin. This the 12th day of May, 1927.
 HENRY C. JACKSON, Trustee.
 Wheeler Martin, Attorney.
