Miss Virginia Harrison is visiting her aunt in Fayetteville this week.

Misses Mary Etheridge Rhea, Cecelia Bell, Ann Elizabeth Nowell, and Bettie Perry, of Windsor, were shoppers here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Mizelle and little son, Dan, of Tarboro, visited relatives here Wednesday.

Mr. C. A. Baker, of Dunn, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. W. Anderson, and Mr. Anderson this week. His many friends in Williamston are always delighted to see Mr. Baker on his annual visit here.

Mrs. Collin Barnes and little son and daughter, of Murfreesboro, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Irene Smith, for several days.

Miss Ruth Norton will return home Sunday from Plymouth, where she has been spending the past two weeks with Miss Louise Ayeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gresham, of Beulahville, visited Mrs. J. C. Crawford Monday.

Miss Evelyn Harrison is visiting friends in Tarboro this week.

Mrs. James Durfee and little son, James, jr., are spending some time with her mother, Mrs. W. C. Liverman.

Misses Bonner Gurganus, Emma Bell Harris, Mildred Darden, of Kenly, Martha Harrison, and Doris Lee, of Oriental; Mayor R. L. Coburn; Bill Sweeney, of Greensboro; Bill Carstarphen; and Robert Turner Gilliam, of Windsor, will spend this week end at Eden House Beach. They will be chaperoned by Mrs. Jennie Yarnall.

Norman Harrison visited friends in Creedmoor Sunday.

R. A. Pope spent Sunday with his family in Creedmoor.

Miss Rebekah Harrison is spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Anderson, near Tarboro.

Misses Mary Byrd Saunders and Frances Pendleton, of Elizabeth City, are visiting Miss Pendleton's cousin, Mrs. C. H. Godwin.

Mrs. J. D. Woolard returned yesterday from Baltimore, where she attended the funeral of her young sister, who died suddenly on Sunday night. The friends of Mrs. Woolard deeply sympathize with her at the death of her sister, which was extremely sad, the young lady having been married only a month. She visited Mrs. Woolard here two years ago, and is very pleasantly remembered by Williamston people.

Miss Ruby Younts, of Greensboro, will spend this week end with Miss Margaret Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Heydenreich, of Rockingham, visited Mrs. Heydenreich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watts, during the past week end. They made the trip through the country.

Miss Frances Williams will leave Monday to join her mother, Mrs. Carrie Biggs Williams, who will leave the hospital and go to the beach to further recuperate from her recent operation.

MRS. J. H. SAUNDERS HOSTESS TO CARD CLUB

Mrs. J. H. Saunders was hostess to her card club last Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 at her home on Church Street. She presented Mrs. F. W. Hoyt with a pair of sheer white hose for making high score in the four progressions of bridge.

Mrs. Sanders served delicious frozen fruit salad with cream dressing, sandwiches, wafers, pickles, and iced tea.

Mrs. Elbert Peel was the only invited guest besides the members.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Bonner Gurganus entertained with a very pretty shower for Miss Emma Bell Harris, one of Williamston's most popular girls, whose marriage will take place some time this summer, on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home on Watts Street.

The guests were greeted by the hostess and guest of honor and presented to Miss Faye Barnhill, of Everetts, who served punch. A wedding contest was enjoyed and Miss Esther Harrison won the prize, which she presented Miss Harris. Misses Mary Clyde Leggett and Geneva Cook entertained with several vocal duets, one being "Honeymoon Lane."

The home, which is very new and attractive, was decorated in lovely pink and white flowers, carrying out the color scheme of the occasion. In the dining room there was suspended over the table a pretty pink and white umbrella, from which were drawn numbers on which were printed little verses telling the whereabouts of a present for the bride-elect. Each guest drew a number, and Miss Harris found many lovely gifts for her trousseau. Little Elsie Gurganus, dressed in pink and white, assisted in entertaining.

The hostess with her sister, Miss Elizabeth, and Miss Barnhill served ice cream and cake which carried out the color scheme.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Harrison, of near Everetts, were shoppers here Wednesday.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CARD CLUB MEETING

The Thursday afternoon card club met and was delightfully entertained by Mrs. B. W. Harly last week.

Mrs. John A. Manning made high score and was presented with an appropriate prize.

There were three special guests of Mrs. Hardy, Mesdames W. J. Hodges, and A. Anderson, and Miss Martha Louise Anderson.

The hostess served most delicious refreshments, fried chicken, frozen salad in attractive molds on tomatoes, pickles, hot biscuits, and iced tea followed by pound cake, which was served hot.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MET WEDNESDAY

The Twentieth Century Club held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. W. K. Parker entertaining.

The program for the day was on "Prison conditions in North Carolina."

Mrs. S. R. Biggs read a paper which was very instructive on the conditions of our prisons and some of the needs of our system of handling prisoners in this State.

Mrs. Parker then read a paper which emphasized the need of prison farms for both our delinquent girls and women.

Mrs. F. W. Hoyt then read current events.

Mrs. J. S. Rhodes and Miss Carrie Dell White added much to the program with a vocal duet, "Barcarolle." They were accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Saunders.

Mrs. Herman Hornthal, of Norfolk, was the only invited guest. Mrs. Parker served an ice course.

This Frigidaire frost coil

makes your present ice-box a Frigidaire

YOU don't have to buy a new refrigerator to enjoy the many delights of Frigidaire electric refrigeration.

We can place this frost coil in your present ice-box, make the necessary connections, and from that time on you will be independent of outside ice supply—your foods will be kept uniformly colder, therefore fresher and better. You will have a compartment always below freezing in which ice cubes and a variety of frozen desserts and salads can be made easily and quickly.

Come in and see Frigidaire demonstrated today. Know all the Frigidaire advantages made possible by General Motors engineering skill and resources.
