MRS. MILTON J. MOYE

Mrs. Moye, before her marriage at Grimesland Wednesday, June 22, was Miss Annie Ruth Jones, and is the daughter of Mrs. Claud Melnott Jones, of Grimesland. She is an unusually attractive and talented young woman and very popular in Eastern North Carolina social circles. Mr. and Mrs. Moye will be at home in Williamston after July 1.

Moye-Jones Wedding

A wedding at high noon, lovely in its setting, was solemnized Wednesday at the Christian church of Grimesland, when Miss Annie Ruth Jones, of Grimesland, became the bride of Mr. Milton J. Moye, of Williamston. Rev. R. L. Davis, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The church was decorated with palms and white lilies, with lighted candles shedding their radiance over the altar and its decorations, making a beautiful setting for the wedding. Mrs. M. C. Williamson, of Raleigh, rendered the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Harper Holliday, of Dunn, who sang two lovely solos, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "Until."

The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was begun, the bride party entered. First the ushers, Luther Moore, of Greenville, and John Proctor, of Grimesland. Then came the groomsmen, Messrs. Bill Manning, of Williamston; Howard and George Moye and T. W. Satterthwaite, of Fictolus.

The bridesmaids were Misses Helen Gray Jones, of Greenville; Rachel Bishop, of Bellville; Gladys Galloway, of Grimesland; and Edna Wood, of LaGrange. Miss Jones wore yellow crepe Elizabeth with picture hat and carried garden flowers. Miss Bishop was gowned in a peach georgette with vari-colored garden flowers. Miss Wood wore a pink crepe Elizabeth and Miss Galloway an orchid gown of the same material and both carried garden flowers.

Miss Mary Jones was her sister's maid of honor, and she was very pretty in a yellow crepe Elizabeth gown with black picture hat. She carried pink roses.

Mrs. Norman Edwards, dame of honor, wore a gown of ashes-of-roses georgette, a black picture hat, and carried pink roses.

Mrs. Williamson wore a tan georgette with tan hat and pink-roses. Mrs. Holliday was gowned in a green crepe dress with pink picture hat and wore a showered shoulder corsage.

The flower girl, little Miss Earl Proctor Andrews, of Bethel, and the ring bearer, little William Hudson, of Grimesland, were very pretty and attractive.

The bride was lovely in her bridal gown of crepe with a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried white roses. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. W. A. Jones, of Rocky Mount.

The groom was attended by his brother, L. A. Moye, of Farmville. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. M. Jones and the late Dr. Jones, of Grimesland. She is one of the finest young women in this section of the State, always remembered for her fine traits of character. She was educated at Atlantic Christian College, and for the past three years has taught in the Grimesland schools.

Mr. Moye is an unusually fine young man. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Moye, of Farmville, and has, since he graduated from Atlantic Christian College, worked with Harrison Bros. & Co., and has made many friends who welcome him and Mrs. Moye into our midst.
