ENTERTAINING TODAY IN HONOR OF RECENT BRIDE
Misses Martha and Esther Harrison are entertaining at bridge from 4 to 6 today at the Woman's Club in honor of Mrs. Milton J. Moye, a recent bride.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF BRIDE

Yesterday afternoon at her home on Haughton Street, Miss Estelle Crawford, with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Crawford, delightfully entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. Walter Gresham, who before her recent marriage was Miss Annie Louise Crawford, with a bridge shower. The tables, which were arranged on the porch, were decorated with laender and pink sweet peas. The tallies were brides and orange blossoms.

Misses Emma Robertson and Martha Anderson cut for high-score prize, a lovely volume of poems, which Miss Robertson won. Second high-score prize, an attractive bridge set, was won by Mrs. Jack Booker. The guest of honor was presented a bottle of Coty's perfume and a box of Coty's powder. Mrs. Milton Moye, a recent bride, was also presented Coty perfume and powder.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Anderson and Thomas Crawford, served delicious refreshments of frozen fruit salad, sandwiches, pickles olives and iced tea. Little Miss Eleanor Brown and Master Reginald Manning then brought Mrs. Gresham a huge basket of lovely gifts showered on her by her many friends.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB IN MEETING

Miss Carrie Dell White delightfully entertained the Twentieth Century Club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Manning, on Church Street. The club's regular program was set aside and officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Emma Hoyt will serve the club as its president, and Mrs. W. K. Parker will act as the club's vice president. Mrs. J. W. Watts, jr., was elected secretary, and Mrs. N. C. Green was made treasurer. Various committees of the club were appointed, after which Mrs. W. K. Parker rendered an instrumental solo.

The meeting was called for the discussion of the club's business and no invited guests were in attendance.

The delicious refreshments served by the hostess emphasized the Fourth of July season.

ROBERSONVILLE LITERARY AND CIVIC CLUB MEETING

Robersonville, June 30.—(Special to The Enterprise).—The Literary and Civic Club met in the home of Mrs. V. A. Ward Tuesday, June 28th.

The following program was rendered:

Mrs. William H. Gray gave a talk on "War," giving accounts of the awful destruction and calamity that must face us should we again allow ourselves to become involved in commercial debauchery that can only end in world-wide slavery.

Mrs. C. L. Wilson read an article: "Shifting the National Mind-Set," urging educational and other methods to shield the coming generations from war, by George Coc.

Mrs. G. H. Cox quoted from Elbert Hubbard's Scrap-book several expressions from noted writers concerning the disasters of war.

Mrs. V. A. Ward discussed the topic of war from different angles, and advised that we make a careful study of the statistics and use every method to prevent war.

'Lindbergh Did Not Wish'

Young men the world over have, with mingled feelings, read of the achievement of the youthful Charles Lindbergh. Admiration and pride in the glory of his feat has been most generously given by all—still what young man is there who has not "wished" that the opportunity had been his—and that he could have "zoomed" through to such everlasting glory?

The now "Colonel Lindbergh" MADE his opportunity. An unknown air-mail pilot, he SAVED part of his earnings. When the hour arrived he had $2,000 saved to offer on the altar of sincerity—and obtain the support of young business men of St. Louis. He was the largest individual contributor to the fund which made the flight possible.

Lindbergh did not WISH—He SAVED

Georgia Man Tells How He Found Relief for Many Complaints by Using An Old Home Remedy.

Athens, Ga.—"I have been married 51 years, and am the father of ten children," says Mr. J. C. E. Weatherford, R. F. D. "A," this city. "About the best home remedy I have ever found is Black-Draught. I can't remember when we haven't used it in the family, giving it to the children for colds and minor ills where a laxative is needed. "We must have used Black-Draught for 40 years, anyway, and in that time we have tried it for many complaints. I would have dull, stupid feeling, and my head would ache and when I would lean over, I would get dizzy. I found that a couple of doses of Black-Draught would relieve this. I used to have gas on my stomach, and would spit up grease. Black-Draught relieved this. "It is just an all-round good medicine. Now that I am 72 years old, I have to take a laxative, and Black-Draught acts easy and gives me satisfaction." In use for over 85 years. Costs only one cent a dose. NC-181
