Mrs. ELBERT S. PEEL, Editor

Sheriff and Mrs. Roebuck and daughter, Miss Lela, will return today from Maysville, where they have been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Joe Pender and children, Joseph and Marian, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Ward in Mount Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lindamood and children, Ralph and Mason, and Mrs. Lizzie Woodhouse, of Tampa, Fla., arrived Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Roberson.

Mrs. E. F. Walker, of Sarasota, Fla., is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. C. Roberson. She and Mr. Walker will visit relatives here and in Norfolk until October, when they will return to Florida.

Mrs. Tom Jarvis and children, who are visiting Mrs. Warren Biggs, will leave Saturday for Wilson, where they will make their home in the future.

E. O. Anderson, of Greenville, has been in town on business this week.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Saunders carried their youngest son, Jack Baker, to Washington Wednesday and had his tonsils removed at a Washington hospital. They returned yesterday, and the little boy is getting along very nicely.

Miss Mary Fletcher, of Belhaven, is visiting Miss Estelle Crawford.

Frank Margolis, with a party of friends, is touring in the western part of the State for a few days.

Captain and Mrs. Dan Fowle, who formerly lived in Washington but who are now making their home at one of the United States Army posts in Minnesota, spent Wednesday night in town with Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Crawford. Mrs. Fowle is remembered here as Miss Helen Moore, having visited here quite often during her girlhood.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Manning left Wednesday for Chapel Hill, where they will spend one more week completing their work in the first term of the summer school. They will then return here for the rest of the summer.

Miss Mary King Ellison, of Belhaven is visiting friends and relatives in town.

Rev. B. Duke Critcher, of Whitakers, has joined his family here, where they will stay until tomorrow and return to their home.

Mrs. Martha Hardison, of Rocky Mount, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. Anderson, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker, of Dunn, arrived Wednesday to spend 10 days with Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Harrison.

All persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make prompt payment of the same.
This June 6th, 1927.
J. W. HINES,
Executor.

Miss Mary Louise Carstarphen has returned to Wilson, where she has a stenographic position.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hodges are expected home from Norfolk, where they have been spending this week. Friends of Mr. Hodges are glad that he will not have to undergo an operation as he feared.

Mrs. C. H. Godwin left yesterday for Nags Head, where she will spend some time with relatives.

Mrs. W. C. Manning, Mrs. R. J. Peel and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Peel spent Wednesday in Rocky Mount.

Mrs. N. C. Green left Tuesday for Richmond, where she will visit several days before going to Washington, where she will visit relatives for a week.

Mr. Alonza Johnson, of Kingville, Texas, is visiting his brother, Mr. Arch Johnson, at Gold Point.

Mr. Quinn, chief road man of the Ford Motor Co., was here for a few minutes yesterday. Mr. Quinn made no statement relative to the expected new Fords.

Presidential elections are an old story to the Majestic Range, according to B. S. Courtney, who is holding a special exhibit of these well-known ranges at his store all next week. He says there are Majestic in homes in this county that have gone through five national elections and are still giving good service. Ten presidential terms have passed since the first of these famous ranges was manufactured. The exhibit of new model Majestics at B. S. Courtney's furniture store is well worth a visit. A fine set of cooking utensils—the choice of two sets—is being given away free with every Majestic purchased during the week.
