ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY
Four Oaks, July 17.—Miss Mildred Yarborough entertained a number of her friends at the lovely home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Stanley on Friday evening. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. Roy Johnson and from there Mrs. J. H. Stanley directed them to the punch bowl, where they were served by Misses Willie Massengill, Elizabeth Lewis, Marvel Sanders, and Meta Shaffer. They were then shown into the spacious living and drawing rooms, which were thrown en suite.

Everyone was asked to take part in the clock contest, Mrs. Roy Johnson, being winner, partners were picked, and asked to solve the puzzle, which when solved, announced the approaching marriage of Miss Sallie Adams, of Four Oaks and Mr. W. C. Manning, jr., of Williamston, on August 17, 1927.

The guests were then asked to write a wish to the bride elect, and Mrs. Roy Johnson graciously presented the guest of honor with a lovely lace handkerchief. Everyone was then invited into the dining room, where the color scheme of pink and white was carried out in favors and decorations.

Among the out of town guests were Misses Millie Quales, of Ashland, Va., Jessie Hines, Goldsboro, Lena Barber, Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Champion, Raleigh; Mr. Alton Johnson, Raleigh; Mrs. Sterling Gates, Farmville.

The above account, taken from the News and Observer, is very interesting to local people. Mr. Manning having been a resident of this place all his life. He is business manager of the Williamston Enterprise and is very popular in both social and business circles of this community and county.

DEMONSTRATE RANGES AT COURTNEY'S THIS WEEK

When there is a real cooking job to be done nothing will "pull the load" as well and give the cook's skill as much of a chance as a good old coal and wood range, in the opinion of Mr. B. S. Courtney. Mr. Courtney is not knocking the many wonderful recent inventions in cook stoves. But he contends that any woman who wants to succeed best at her three-meals-a-day hot-water-when-asked for job needs a Majestic Range. There is a worthwhile exhibit of new model Majestics at the Courtney furniture store all this week. A fine set of cooking utensils—choice of two sets—is being given away with every Majestic bought during the week.

Miss Josephine Sykes, of Sanford, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. W. C. Liverman for several days.

Mrs. B. W. Harly and little son are visiting relatives in Enfield.

K. B. Crawford is in Chatham, Va. where he is doing some special work for the Home Insurance company.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Last Thursday night from 8:30 to 11:00, Mrs. John L. Rodgeron entertained very charmingly with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Elizabeth Burras, one of the season's most popular brides-elect. Mrs. Rodgeron's home was most attractive for the occasion. She used a color scheme of pink and white which was carried out in different ways in the various rooms. In the reception hall where Misses Margaret Rodgeron and Susie James met the guests, vases of gladioli and snap dragons were used and bridge lamps with rose shades cast their soft glow upon that room and the back hall where the punch was dispensed by Mrs. Marshall Rodgeron. Pink crepe myrtle covered the back ground of white over which pink draperies were artistically hung. The dining room was decorated with pink and white sweet peas, silver baskets of these being used on the table where tall tapers in silver holders shed a soft light. Pink streamers from the table to the chandelier completed the beauty of that room. Vases of the different flowers were used in the front and back parlors.

Little Miss Mary Rodgeron had a fortune for each one of her mother's guests which they found on a punch board. Reading the fortunes and carrying out their instructions caused much fun and then the hostess had a floral wedding contest. The guest of honor received the prize, a bottle of perfume.

All during the evening, Miss Katherine Hardison, at the piano, rendered lovely selections, and each guest registered in the "shower book" which was kept by Miss Kate Philpott. Miss Burras was presented a "bride's book" also.

The most attractive feature of the entertainment, however, was the presentation of the lovely gifts which her friend had bought. Little Misses Julia Watts and Faye Gurganus pushed in a beautifully and artistically-made aeroplane, which was laden with gifts so heavy that it could not rise from the floor. It was decorated with pink and white paper, carrying out the color scheme while the little girls were pink and white crepe de chine dresses.

Mrs. J. W. Hight, Mrs. W. A. James, Misses Mary and Margaret Rodgeron and Katherine Hardison served pink and white cakes and ice cream.

Busy smokers of today select Camel as their favorite smoke

PRESENT-DAY people, the fastest workers of all time, claim their right to enjoyment. And they choose Camels for the utmost in smoking pleasure.

Camel is made to please and delight the modern, experienced smoker. It is rolled of the choicest tobaccos grown. It is matchlessly blended for mildness and fragrance in the smoking.

Let Camels demonstrate their goodness and you'll know why the smokers of today choose them over all other cigarettes. For that exalted sense of taste-satisfaction, no other smoke can compare with this one. "Have a Camel!"
