

TOBACCO TOWN OF GREENVILLE SET FOR OPENING

Nine Factories and Seven Warehouses To Operate This Season

Everything is now ready for the opening of the Greenville Tobacco Market Tuesday, September 6, at 9 o'clock, when four sets of buyers will begin buying the golden weed on the Greenville tobacco market.

Greenville tobacco market will have nine factories in operation this season and seven brick warehouses. The factories will be operated by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., which is a new plant; Liggett-Myers Tobacco Co., W. C. Thomas Tobacco Co., Person-Garrett Tobacco Co., who have built a new addition to their large plant; the Greenville Tobacco Co., which is a new company; E. B. Ficklen Tobacco Co., who have built to their large plant; the American Tobacco Co., who have built a new plant; Imperial Tobacco Co., and the Export Tobacco Co., who have added a new addition to their plant.

The warehouse space this year will consist of about ten acres. The warehouses will be operated by the following experienced men, who have been in the business several years: Smith & Sugg, who have built a new addition to their warehouse; McGowan & Cannon, who have their warehouse in fine condition; F. V. Johnston's house has been put in best of condition; J. N. Gorman, who has built a new addition to his house; O. L. Joyner & Sons, remodeled their house; Moye & Gentry, who have built a new addition to their house; Forbes & Morton, who have rebuilt their house.

The Greenville Tobacco Market is located in the heart of Eastern North Carolina, and is easily reached, as there are seven roads leading into Greenville.

The Greenville tobacco market made the highest average of any tobacco market in eastern North Carolina for 1926 crop, selling over 49,000,000 pounds of tobacco for an average of $28.24 per hundred—adv.
