Miss Ruth Peel Is Hostess To Young People Leaving for College

At the attractive new home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peel, Miss Ruth Peel entertained last Friday evening, complimentary to the boys and girls of the younger crowd who are leaving for various schools and colleges.

Dancing and cards were enjoyed by the young people. The pretty interior of the home was decorated with pink and orchid dahlias and asters. Misses Ollie Marie Roberson and Virginia Harrison served punch and the hostess, assisted by her mother, served ice cream and wafers with gay-colored baskets of peanuts as favors.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Misses Hattie and Margaret Ross, of Robersonville Entertain Friends

Misses Hattie and Margaret Ross (twins) celebrated their seventeenth birthday on Thursday evening, September 8, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ross.

The home was thrown en suite for the occasion, and beautifully decorated with ferns, cut flowers, and ivy.

The guests were met at the door by their cousin, Mrs. T. T. Grimes, of Titusville, Fla., and little Miss Anita Grimes, who received the presents while they registered under the supervision of Miss Hattie Ross. Miss Margaret Ross then invited the guests to the living room, where they were entertained with many piano selections by Misses Opal Warren, Christine Taylor, and Mr. Vernon Ward.

Date cards were presented, including ten dates. The guests were given three minutes to each date, the ringing of the breakfast bell being the signal.

A musical contest (Love's Romance) was the next feature of entertainment, Miss Josephine Roberson presiding at the piano. Miss Eloise Fleetwood, after a tie of nine, succeeded in drawing the lucky number and was awarded a lovely hand-made boudoir pillow, while Miss Lucy Warren received a huge stick of candy as consolation. Miss Belle Boyette then lighted the birthday candles, and by the flickering of the soft-colored lights, cream and cake, beautifully carrying out the color scheme of pink and green, was served by Misses Della Undine Ross, Christine Taylor, Elsie Reid Roberson, and Frances Jenkins.

Tables loaded with valuable gifts expressed the love and high esteem in which Hattie and Margaret are held by their many friends. Sixty guests were present.

SCHOOL NEWS OF ROBERSONVILLE

Regular Work Being Carried on Despite Lack of Books Handicap

Regular assignments have been given in all the departments since the opening of school. It is true that some students were without books, but many were able to secure second-hand books. With a system of "lend and borrow" operating, the work in the high school has been in full swing. However, since the recent arrival of a shipment of textbooks work will naturally be more easily and economically carried on.

The high school boys seem much interested in football. Daily practice has begun, with Mr. T. R. Jenkins, of the faculty, as coach. Assisting him is Mr. Gilbert Smith, of Robersonville, whose services are very much appreciated by both team and coach.

It is with a feeling of acute interest that the teachers of the elementary school await the arrival of equipment ordered for the primary and grammar grades departments. The amount and type of equipment purchased will meet the requirements of the State regulations for a standard elementary school.

The average daily attendance remains practically constant.

Interest continues strong among the members of the class taking the commercial course. Three new typewriters will be available for use in a few days.

According to reports handed in to the home economics department, the second-year pupils have been actively engaged in continuing the practice of home economics in their homes during the past summer. Their reports would indicate the possibility of more skilled home economics students for the present year and better home makers for the future.
