

Here is beauty and the beast, but in this instance, beauty, represented by Miss Teresa Baron, is on the long end, while the least honors, in the hands of, to be exact, the feet of "Little George," take the second count. Any way, you can personally view both beauty and beast when John Robinson's Circus comes to Greenville Saturday, October 8, for afternoon and night exhibitions in the near future. "Little George," is one of the members of the juvenile zoo with the "pioneer circus of the world," while Miss Baron is one of the four Baron Girls, noted English aerialists. These girls are said to be without an equal in aerialistics, possessing abundant nerve and daring, as well as a goodly share of English beauty. The 104th edition of John Robinson's Circus comes with many new and novel features, as well as the greatest of all trained wild animal displays.
