CATTLE PAYS YEARLY PROFIT

Only Crop on Edgecombe Farm That Has Paid Profit Every Year

A farm herd of beef cattle is the only crop of Cotton Valley Farm, in Edgecombe County, that has paid a profit each year.

liamston, N. C.

"Thirty head of pure-bred Aberdeen Angus beef cattle have paid a small profit each year to the owners of Cot- MONEY TO LOAN: I ton Valley Farm, despite the fact that there has been a light demand for breeding stock; and most- of the sur-R. S. Curtis, animal husbandman at College. "The manager of this farm, Mr. L. W. Shook, states that his, cash crops, such as cotton, tobacco, and peanuts, have made more total money than the cattle, yet the cattle have paid in some profit consistently each year."

It costs little to maintain the beef herd on Cotton Valley Farm. There of 2t are 250 acres in pasture, where the cattle range during summer. In win- NOTICE OF SALE UNDER EXEter they glean the fields, where the crops were grown and are fed some silage and cottonseed meal, with grazing on cover crops available. 'Mr. Shook states that there are lew men in eastern. Carolina who should go inthe beef-cattle business on a large scale, yet there are hundreds of farms court of Martin County in the abovewhere cattle would pay well if handled entitled action, I will, on Monday, the as they are on his place. Mr. Shook 7th day of November, 1927, at 12 o' has 850 acres under his supervision with 435 in cultization, 250 in pasture said county, sell to the highest bidder and the remainder in woodfand. Thirty for cash, to satisfy said execution, all cows are kept in the breeding herd.

There were 40 cows in the herd said Brick Warehouse Co., the defendwhen Mr. Shook began to manage the ant, has in the following described real place some 12 years ago. There were estate, to wit: f-all sizes and conditions, with about half being grade Angus. A good bull was bought and the herd graded up The undesirable cows were sold as beef, and in about five or six years Mr. Shook- had a high-grade herd of 35 cows. He then sold these and at a cost of about $10 above the price grade animals. An-excellent bull was secured to head the herd and now only pure breds are grown. These are returning a profit each year, with prospects of the profits going higher, since pure-bred beef cattle are now in demand.
