EDWARDS - ADKINS
On Saturday, October 15th, a wedding of much interest to people of Eastern Carolina took place in the Baptist Church of Robersonville, when Miss Helen Adkins, of Robersonville, and Mr. John Henry Edwards, formerly of this city but now of Raleigh, were married by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Mason.

The church was beautifully decorated for the nuptial occasion. A pyramid of ferns formed a background for the altar, which was banked with ivy and old-fashioned garden flowers.

Miss Mattie Mae Bailey, of Oriental, played the wedding music, and Miss Gladys Bailey, gowned in green georgette and carrying a corsage of pink rosebuds, sang "When I'm With You," and "At Dawning."

The ushers were Messrs. W. Roy Allen and Elmer D. Lilley, of Raleigh. Following them to the altar were the bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Edwards, sister of the groom, and Miss Margaret E. Roberson, of Princeton. Miss Edwards was gowned in a beige crepe Elizabeth, trimmed with real lace of the same shade, and Miss Roberson wore lavin green crepe Elizabeth, and they both carried old-fashioned nosegays.

The groomsmen were Messrs. Robert Adkins, brother of the bride, and G. W. Dobbin, of Raleigh. The dame of honor, Mrs. Robert Adkins, followed them and was gowned in a beige crepe Elizabeth and chiffon velvet and wore a hat of gold lace. She carried sweetheart roses. Miss Mary Adkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and she wore navy blue crepe Elizabeth and carried an arm bouquet of red roses showered with valley lilies.

Little James B. Taylor, jr., of Winston-Salem, was ring bearer, and carried the ring in the heart of a white rose.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. W. H. Adkins, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. Haywood E. Green, of Raleigh. The bride was gowned in navy blue chenille with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left for New York City and other points of interest in the north. Mrs. Edwards is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Adkins, of Robersonville.

Mr. Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Edwards, of this community, and is one of the finest holds a responsible position with the S. A. L. Railroad at Raleigh.
