Spices and seasonings do not supply the body with building material or energy, but they are important as appetizers.

A wide-disk drainer is a great time saver. Hot water can be poured over the china, and only the silver and glasses need be dried.

To test samples of fabric for fastness to light, cover one half with cardboard and expose the rest to direct sunlight for 10 days. To test for fastness in laundering, wash and dry half your sample under ordinary conditions. Current material should be tested in these ways before purchasing, and dress goods when possible.

To remove chewing gum from a washable dress, soften the stain with egg white and then wash.

NOTICE OF SALE

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an order of the superior court of Martin County, signed by M. V. Barnhill, judge, in the case of F. W. Hoyt vs. The Peoples Bank, the undersigned receiver for The Peoples Bank will on Saturday, the 26th day of November 1927, at 12 o'clock p.m., at the courthouse door of Martin County, at Williamston, N. C., offer at public sale to the highest bidder for cash the following described real estate, to wit:

First tract: Beginning at a point on the second Street west of the A. C. L. Depot, in the town of Williamston, N. C., where J. G. Staton's line intersects said street and the line of the A. C. L. Railroad Company, and running along the line of the said railroad company land in an easterly direction parallel with the railroad track 60 feet; thence a southerly direction about 210 feet to Wilson's line; thence with Wilson's line a westerly direction to the street referred to as the second street west of the A. C. L. R. R. depot; thence with the line of the said street a northerly direction to the beginning. The above description is intended to convey a piece of land 60 feet by 210 feet on the west end of what is known as the gin lot, and where the peanut factory stands.

Second tract: Beginning at a stake in the southwest corner of the one-quarter (1-4) acre lot of the colored Odd Fellows Lodge, running thence southerly (60) sixty feet along the second cross street southwest of the Albemarle and Raleigh depot at a stub (said street now known and called Pearl Street); thence southwesterly (70) feet to a stake; thence northwesterly (60) feet to the lot belonging to the Colored Odd Fellows Lodge; thence northeasterly (70) feet to the beginning. Containing (1-10) one-tenth of an acre, more or less, and being the same land conveyed by Sylvester Hassell to the trustees of the second colored Baptist church by deed which is of record in the public registry of Martin County in book SSS, at page 248, the said colored Baptist church now known as "The Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church," being where the Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church was built, and the land adjacent thereto; the deed from Sylvester Hassell being hereby referred to for purpose of description.

Third tract: That certain lot or parcel of land lying and being in the town of Williamston, N. C., and being at the intersection of Wilson and Pearl Streets at the northeast corner of said streets; thence down Pearl Street 110 feet to the Roanoke Peanut Company's line; thence in an easterly direction with the Roanoke Peanut Company's line 75 feet to J. G. Staton's and Lizzie Hines' line; thence with Lizzie Hines' line in a southerly direction 110 feet to an iron stake on Wilson Street; thence down Wilson Street in a westerly direction 75 feet to the beginning, and being lot No. four.

Fourth tract: Adjoining the lands of the A. C. L. Railroad Company, Geo. W. Blount, et al., and bounded on the north by the A. C. L. Railroad Company; on the east by Standard Oil Co.; on the south by Geo. W. Blount; and on the west by lands of Matilda Woodard; the dimensions being 85 feet wide and 132 feet deep; and being the same premises conveyed by the Williamston Land & Improvement Company to Matilda Woodard, and of record in the public registry of Martin County in book T-1, at page 436, to which deed is hereby referred to for the purpose of description.

Fifth tract: A one-half undivided interest in the Hoard land, described as follows: Adjoining the lands of Joseph Waldo and others, and beginning at four small ashes and black gums on the north side of Concho Creek, Hoard's corner; thence with Hoard's line N. 26 1-2 E. 232 poles to a pine; thence with said Hoard's line and said Waldo's line to the Cabin Branch; thence down the meanders of the main run of Concho Creek, thence up the run of said creek to the first station, containing 210 acres, more or less.

Sixth tract: Beginning at the C. P. Pine, thence S. 33 W. 120 poles to John Buttery's corner in the Wolf Pitt Branch; thence down said branch to an elm, Stuart James' corner in the Lee line; thence N. 23 E. along the Lee line 124 poles to the beginning. Notice is hereby further given that at the same time and place above mentioned for the sale of the real estate above mentioned, the undersigned receiver, under and by virtue of the order signed by Barnhill, judge, will offer at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, the following described notes, judgments, stocks, and other personal property, including all the collateral given as security for said notes, judgments, stocks, and collateral, same being described as follows, to wit:
