Mrs. W. A. Cherry Is Hostess to Baptist Church Class Friday

The Philathea Class of the Baptist Church met with Mrs. W. A. Cherry last Friday evening for its regular business and social meeting. The meeting was opened with a Scripture reading by Mrs. Herbert Cowan, which was followed with a prayer by Mrs. Lina Martin.

The only important business of the meeting was electing new officers for the coming year, as follows:

President, Mrs. H. B. Holloman; first vice president, Mrs. W. A. Cherry; second vice president, Mrs. Joe Cowan; secretary and treasurer, Miss Margaret Everett; reporter, Mrs. W. S. Roberson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. W. Keith; and critic, Mrs. Herbert Cowan.

After this the hostess served refreshments, which consisted of chocolate cake and block ice cream.

At the conclusion, as a pleasant surprise, the Baracas invited the class to the river to an oyster roast, which was enjoyed very much.

Unknown?---

What matter his name, of what avail his rank? Banker or bookkeeper before his country's clarion call; raw rookie or grizzled veteran when the grim reaper's scythe mowed him down—the Unknown Soldier lies at rest with the heroes of past centuries.

WEAK, NERVOUS

Georgia Lady Could Not Sleep Nights, But After Taking Cardui She Was "Like a Different Person."

Coker, Ga.—Mrs. C. H. Smith, of this place, related the following interesting experience: "I was weak and nervous and run-down. I couldn't sleep at night. I felt tired and not in condition to do my work. I had Cardui recommended to me, but always thought I could out-do most sickness, but this was one time I needed help. I was so weak I could hardly lift my hand. "I can't express how bad I felt. "I know I improved after taking Cardui. I was like a different person. I was built up and was stronger and better than in a long time. "I have a young daughter who had the 'flu,' and after she got up she would once in a while have such severe cramping spells, just suffer terribly. I knew there was a weakness and, hoping Cardui would reach this trouble, I had her take it, and the first bottle helped her so much she was able to leave it off and does not have this trouble now." Cardui has been in use for more than 50 years. Purely vegetable, mild, harmless. At all drug stores. NC-178

PARTY GIVEN FOR LEAGUERS

Intermediate Epworthians Guests of Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Booker

On Thursday evening, November 6, Mrs. T. W. Lee and Mrs. W. H. Booker delightfully entertained members of the Intermediate Epworth League of the Methodist Church with a party at the home of Mrs. Lee. The house was tastefully decorated with fall flowers.

During the evening there were two contests given, "The Berry Contest," was won by Hubert Cowen and Grace Page, and the "Chrysanthemum Contest" was won by J. K. Rogerson and Reg Simpson. After a number of games were played the hostesses served a strawberry and grape beverage and wafers.

Every delay, which means a day, in placing your order for the winter's supply of coal can mean a loss to you, because local dealers can not control prices and a cost-at-mine advance means you must pay accordingly. Then, too, delivery now means good first-grade coal at minimum cost, whereas rush delivery when winter storms and cold blows may mean that you'll be glad to have inferior minings at any price.

"Close-up" Music is rich—lavish in volume

It brings you the elusive individuality of each instrument, you are conscious almost of the personality of each musician! Banjo, trumpet, clarinet, and sax—each speaks out to you, not as orchestral instruments submerged in ensemble sound, but silhouetted and precise as a solo! . . . Do you like jazz? Then hear it on the Edison! Listen to its moaning blue notes, its sparkling phrases, its background of pulsing bass! All...all are there! . . . Do you prefer the classics? The Edison brings them to you as their composers would have you hear them—and with all the elusive shadings of the interpreting artist . . . The Edison has been perfected by Thomas A. Edison on the 50th Anniversary of his invention of the phonograph. It marks a new epoch in the science of musical re-creation . . . and in the enjoyment of music in the home. We invite you to come in and hear the new Edison—the instrument that brings perfect music to you whenever you want it, as long as you want it, without even the annoyance of changing a needle!

The astounding EDISONIC

The Edison The Schubert Edison—at $135. Compact, beautifully proportioned, finished in two-tone English Brown Mahogany.
