The Peanut Exposition

The East Carolina Peanut Exposition is now only two weeks off, when Aboskie will shine at night like midday, by the specially prepared illumination of the Virginia Electric & Power Co.

Many floats representing American farm crops grown in this section will be in the big pageant on the opening night. One float will represent King Cotton. Indian corn will play a big part in the parade and will not only show the corn but the Indian, too.

The tobacco exhibit will be put on by Williamston and will show tobacco

Two Good Sermons

"Cast thy bread upon the waters," is the text of Rev. F. W. Lee at the Methodist Church Sunday morning, while Rev. C. H. Dickey's text at the Baptist Church Sunday night was, "Whereby he hath granted unto us exceeding great promises, whereby we might partake of the divine nature." The general theme of both sermons was the same, in that we apparently fail to appreciate the power and willingness of God to keep His promises; many apparently being afraid to plant a seed because they will not be able to pluck the ear, not willing to trust anything

Remember the Orphanages

Thanksgiving Day will be the day in which every person in North Carolina is being asked to donate one day's salary to the upkeep of some orphanage or some orphan child. This would take care of the needs of practically every child in North Carolina who is not being cared for. Of course, no man has to give anything; it is entirely optional with the individual; nor is any person who gives forced to give just what he earns in a

Georgia Man Tells How He Found Relief for Many Complaints by Using An Old Home Remedy.

Athens, Ga.—"I have been married 51 years, and am the father of ten children," says Mr. J. C. E. Westford, R. F. D. "A," this city. "About the best home remedy I have ever found is Black Draught. I can't remember when we haven't used it in the family, giving it to the children for colds and minor ills where a laxative is needed.

"We must have used Black Draught for 40 years, anyway, and in that time we have tried it for many complaints. I would have felt dull, stupid feeling, and my head would ache and when I would lean over, I would get dizzy. I found that a couple of doses of Black Draught would relieve this. I used to have gas on my stomach, and would spit up grease. Black Draught relieved this.

"It is just an all-round good medicine. Now that I am 72 years old, I have to take a laxative, and Black Draught acts easy and gives me satisfaction."

In use for over 85 years. Costs only one cent a dose. NC-187

"THE STYLE of THE STAR" IS WHAT WOMEN ADMIRE!

Style in a motor car, like style in dress, is often a matter of personal opinion. But there are style trends in automobile designs just as definite and striking as those in the world of dress, and the women are the first to see them.

And it is the outstanding style of the new STAR SIX that is winning favor in the eyes of women of good taste. There is a harmony of line and design, there is a perfect blending of the artistic and the practical; there are color combinations which are almost symphonic in the newest STAR.

Every day sees more STARS, as the personal car of the woman who could afford, and probably has, much higher priced cars. And in families of good taste where only one car is needed, the STAR is rapidly becoming first choice. Examine the STAR—casually or carefully—and you'll know why.

GORMAN'S MARKET REPORT

The State report gives Greenville's October average as $25.19. Gorman's average for October was $26.64. We made this average although we sell such a large percentage of common tobacco. IT PAYS TO SELL IN GREENVILLE AND AT GORMAN'S. Gorman's has first sale Wednesday. No sale Thursday or Friday, as we close Wednesday night for Thanksgiving and will reopen the following Monday.

The rains on Wednesday and Thursday (two of our first sales) last week, cut our receipts. However, Gorman's sold 820,368 pounds for $224,479.72, and averaged $27.36 for all we sold. Friday's sale was one of the largest sales of the season (the larger part came in after seven o'clock A. M.). With third second sale and a house over half filled we sold all but three rows. Had we been able to sell this, the market would have cleaned up. Prices (considering the order of the tobacco) have held up well all the week, and the grades from 29 cents up showed more strength Thursday and Friday; they were not as high as ten days or two weeks ago, but better than they were the first of the week. So many have finished selling we look for lighter sales after Monday and see no reason for prices to get any lower. Greenville will continue the four sales until Christmas. There will be no reduction in the number of buyers after Thanksgiving. Send your tobacco to Gorman's and you will get the top of the market for every lot in your load.
