IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our beloved husband and father, John Ezzell, who departed this life January 6th, 1928.

The hopes that I once fondly cherished have fled, and I'm left in despair; With the passing of thee they have perished.

They sank when thy spirit departed; They vanished with thee in the tomb. And left me behind, broken-hearted. A blighted tree crushed in its bloom.

'Tis sweet to believe in a heaven As being a beautiful shore, Where long sundered hearts are united To part from each other no more.

And this is what lightens my burden Since death rent our bosoms in twain, That there, in that ultimate harbor, Our love will bloom brightly again.

His devoted wife and children: LILLIAN EZZELL.
