Holliday sang very pretty solos, and Mrs. W. K. Parker rendered a lovely piano selection. The hostess served an ice course after books were exchanged. Special guests were Mesdames G. O. Tuck, Brown, A. R. Dunning, L. T. Fowden, C. G. Crockett, Rush Bonduant, W. C. Manning, jr., Milton Moye, Raleigh Bradley, J. G. Stator, K. B. Crawford, Lawrence Peel, Jim King, and Misses Mary Smith, Mary Fletcher and Peacock and Newsome, of Washington.

Double Wedding of Sisters in Suffolk

Miss Mary Bailey and Mr. LeRoy Ausbon and Miss Maud Bailey and Mr. Sammie Whitehurst were married in Suffolk on Saturday, March 17, 1928. They left here that day and made the trip to the Virginia city, where the double ceremony was performed very quietly.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehurst returned and are now at home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whitehurst, in Pitt County.

The marriage of the other couple was kept a secret and was not announced until Saturday, April 7th.

The young brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bailey, of Bear Grass, and are very popular and highly regarded young women in their community.

Mr. Whitehurst is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whitehurst, of Pitt County, and Mr. Ausbon is the son of Mr. Jeff Ausbon, of Beaufort County.

Teacher Entertains Graduating Class

The seventh-grade graduating class of the Woodard's Pond School were entertained Wednesday night in the home of their teacher, Mrs. Daden H. Wolfe in Wanoa recently. The living room and dining room were tastefully decorated in class colors of blue and gold and also with potted plants.

Several games were played, after which the guests were invited into the dining room, where they were served a delicious ice course by the hos-tes, assisted by Miss Fannie Harris, a co-worker teacher. Music and dancing were also a later feature of the program followed by a course of fruits and beverages. Little Miss Martha B. Wolfe, daughter of the hostess and mascot of the class, in a costume of pink vanity crepe, helped to entertain by her cunning ways and witty remarks.

The class is composed of Misses Elsie Whitley, Olivia Asby, Ruby Prickell, Lola Cutler, Elsie Cox, Laura K. Cutler, and Erma Gray Wallace. There were also several invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rogers Entertain

On Monday evening, April 9, from 8:30 until 11:30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rogers delightfully entertained the Bear Grass High School faculty. The home was artistically and profusely decorated with potted plants and flowers. Two tables of progressive ruck were played, Mr. Dewey Leggett winning high score. Games and other contests and dancing were enjoyed during the evening.

Piano music was rendered by Miss Lukie Rogers. Some very beautiful song selections were rendered by Misses Lukie Rogers and Clara Godwin.

The guests repaired to the dining room, which with its attractive decorations in yellow and green was a veritable scene of beauty with shaded windows and golden rays from the numerous candles. The table was elaborately decorated in yellow and green, and an Easter basket adorned its center. Delicious refreshments were served. Twenty-nine guests were present.
