Twentieth Century Club Meeting Held Tuesday

The Twentieth Century Club meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. K. Parker as hostess. The pretty old home was more charming than usual with its decorations of pink roses and narcissus. In huge crystal bowls and vases they were used in great profusion in the receiving hall and music room, where the meeting was held.

The topic of the study for the afternoon was China. Mrs. John W. Manning had an interesting paper on the manners and customs and habits of the Chinese. Mrs. N. C. Green gave a historical sketch of the building of the great wall, giving a striking description of it.

Mrs. Harper Holliday, as usual, delighted her audience with a vocal solo. Mrs. W. B. Watts and Mrs. John W. Manning played very pretty piano solos; and Mrs. Clayton Moore concluded the program with current events.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. B. H. Knight, served ice cream with strawberry decorations and cake. She also presented each guest with a nosegay of sweet peas.

Those present besides the club members were: Mesdames M. D. Watts, E. P. Cunningham, C. G. Crockett, W. E. Brown, Rush Bondurant, David Marchant, of Richmond, and F. J. Margolis.

OAK CITY SCHOOL FINAL EXERCISES

Community Picnic Thursday Was Feature of Entertainment

Oak City, May 2—Commencement exercises for Oak City High School, held in the auditorium April 22, 24, 25, and 26, closed a very successful year for the school. Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald, of the Williamston Methodist Church, preached the annual sermon to a large and appreciative audience.

The music recital on Tuesday evening was very good. The program consisted of piano, violin, and trombone solos, together with orchestra and illustrated songs.

The class night exercises were held on Wednesday evening. The class presented 'The World Outside,' a royalty play, and held the attention of a packed auditorium for almost two hours.

The community picnic was a special feature of entertainment for Thursday. At 11 o'clock Mr. A. R. Dunning, of Williamston, made a very interesting address, after which all school children marched out and were served dinner. Then the many friends and patrons helped themselves to a bountiful supply of appetizing food. The barbecue was well prepared and served under the management and leadership of Mr. J. W. Hines, chairman of the preparation committee.

The year's work was officially closed Thursday evening at 8 o'clock when Hon. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Northampton county, delivered the commencement address. Supt. R. A. Pope presented the diplomas. The annual prizes were awarded by Mr. R. J. Peel. The winners were as follows: Best high-school English, Rachel Rawles, by Oak City Supply Co.; best high-school history, Velma Hines, by W. J. Johnson & Co.; best high-school mathematics, Mary Kathryn Ainsley, by Harrell-Hopkins Co.; best essay on vocational education, Velma Hines, by B. M. Worsley; best home economics student, Mary Kathryn Ainsley, by J. C. Ross & Co.; best all-round high-school pupil, Naomi Etheridge, by B. L. Johnson; best scholarship, seventh grade, Hazel Davis, by J. H. Ayers & Co.; best attendance on River Road, Essie Hoggard, by Williams Chapel Demonstration Club.

SPOTS BEFORE EYES

Miner Had Dark Spots Before Eyes. Felt Dull, Tired, Achy. Doesn't Get Down Any More.

Somers, Ky.—Telling how he had known of the merit of Theford's Black-Draught since he was a boy, Mr. Albert Garland, of this city, recently said:

"I used to work in the mines, but lost quite a bit of time on account of the sick spells I had. I would get to having a bad taste in my mouth, and a very dull, tired feeling and ache. I would have dark spots in front of my eyes, and I would be so dizzy I would stagger like I was drunk."

"I took medicine, but didn't seem to get any better. My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did, and after a few doses I felt much better. Now I take it as soon as I feel the least bad, and I don't get down. I certainly can say that it has done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken."

"I never get without Black-Draught. If I go on a visit, I take a package along in my suit-case. My health is better now than it has been in years, and I believe it is the use of Black-Draught that did it."

Black-Draught is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, of highest quality. Try it. NC-155
