BARNHILL-WOOD

At the Christian church in LaGrange on last Thursday Miss Edna Earl Wood and Mr. Henry Leamon Barnhill were united in marriage by Rev. Sullivan, of Wilson, a former pastor of the bride. For the occasion, the church was attractively decorated with roses in profusion, combined with ferns and palms. Lighted tapers added to the effectiveness of the setting for the nuptial event.

Miss Elizabeth Kinsley played several selections prior to the ceremony, among them being the 'Spring Song' and 'Song of Love.' For the professional Lohengrin's wedding march was used. Miss Kinsey wore a rose georgette gown with picture hat to match and carried pink roses.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Estus White, of Harrellsville sang very prettily 'The Sweetest Story Ever Told,' and 'I Love You Truly.' She was gowned in Nile green georgette with a pink hat and carried pink roses. The ushers were Messrs. Thurston Adams and Horace Wood. The bridesmaids first to enter were Misses Elizabeth McNair, of Sumter, S. C., and Lela Brown Barnhill, of Everetts, sister of the groom. Miss McNair wore a chamouis georgette gown and an orchid hat, and carried roses and orchid sweet peas. Miss Barnhill was gowned in a pink georgette dress and had a pink picture hat. She also carried roses and sweet peas.

The groomsmen were Messrs. Milton Moye, of Williamston, C. B. Clark of Everetts, Roy Coburn, of Williamston, and John Winfield, of Kinston. The next bridesmaids to enter were Misses Esther Harrison, of Williamston, and Fae Barnhill, another sister of the groom. Miss Harrison wore a yellow georgette gown with yellow picture hat to match and carried roses and sweet peas. Miss Barnhill wore a chamouis crepe dress, with a green picture hat and carried pink roses and orchid sweet peas.

The dame of honor, Mrs. Roy Adams was gowned in blue georgette, with a leghorn hat to match, and carried yellow roses.

Miss Mary Jones, of Grimesland, was maid of honor. She was very becomingly gowned in peach georgette with leghorn hat trimmed to match, and her flowers were pink roses and sweet peas.

Little Misses Annie Ruth Burke and Alice James Adams, in blue georgette, were the flower girls. They each carried baskets of flowers.

Garland Barnhill, brother of the groom, was his best man. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. P. W. Wood. Her blonde beauty was enhanced by the navy blue ensemble suit that she wore. Her suit had tan accessories and her bridal bouquet was of roses, valley lilies, and orchids.

Mrs. Barnhill is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Wood, of LaGrange, and is very prominently connected in Lenoir County. She graduated from Atlantic Christian College and taught school in Kinston for one year.

Mr. Barnhill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnhill, and is one of Martin County's most promising young men. At present he is one of the proprietors of the Farmers Warehouse and is making his home here. They will be at home here with Mrs. Myrtle Brown after June 15th.

Celebrates Birthday With Party Friday
Miss Mildred Ayers delightfully entertained a large number of friends at her home in Bear Grass Friday evening, June 8, in honor of her thirteenth birthday.

Plays, games, and music, both instrumental and vocal, were enjoyed throughout the evening. The biggest treat was the song selections rendered by the Jamesville quartet.

About 11 o'clock the guests were ushered into the dining room, which was attractively decorated with a profusion of summer flowers, where they were served honey cake and ice cream. The center of the table was adorned with a beautiful birthday cake with 13 lighted candles on it.

Miss Ayers received many attractive and useful gifts.

Entertains At Bridge Luncheon
Mrs. C. B. Hassell entertained with a bridge luncheon on Friday at 11 o'clock, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Frances Seabury Chase, of Suffolk, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stator. Mrs. Bill Brown was the only other guest. Duplicate bridge was played and after the 24 hands were played a delightful lunch was served by the hostess.

Bridge Party At Woman's Club
Mrs. Titus Critcher and Mrs. Earl Wynne were joint hostesses with a bridge party on Thursday evening, from 8:30 to 12 o'clock at the Woman's Club. This was one of the largest and prettiest parties of the season and was enjoyed by a number of local people and several out-of-town friends. The club rooms were attractively arranged and summer flowers were used in profusion.

The hostesses served fruit lemonade while the games were being played and afterwards an ice course. Nose-gays of sweet peas were given each guest. Mrs. S. R. Biggs made high score and was given a beautiful piece of lingerie.

TERRIBLY ILL

Kentucky Lady's Health Was Very Bad. Had Severe Pains and Could Not Sleep.

Lexington, Ky.—Mrs. J. H. Nichols, who lives at 513 Elm Tree Lane, this city, says that Cardui has been of valuable assistance to her on two occasions, which she tells about below:

"Some few years ago, my health was bad. I had very severe pains in my sides. My nerves were in a terrible condition. I could not rest. The lower part of my body was very sore. I could hardly stoop over to lace my shoes. I would have to put my foot on a chair. I did not feel like eating, and did not sleep well at all at nights."

"A friend of mine recommended Cardui. I began taking it and saw quite an improvement in my condition. I kept it up until I felt strong and well."

About a year ago, Mrs. Nichols says, she found herself in a nervous, run-down condition. "I took Cardui again," she adds, "and it helped me wonderfully. It is a splendid tonic."

Thousands of women have written to tell how Cardui helped them to get rid of pain and suffering. Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic, made from purely vegetable ingredients. At all drug stores. NC-190
