The Defamer's Song

What kind of a spirit is it working in this country? It is at least something of a mystery that 130 years after George Washington died so many new faults should be discovered and so much criticism be directed against him. However, the mystery is dispelled when we find these same critics praising Benedict Arnold and Aaron Burr. It shows who the fellows are that are doing the talking. It brings the fellows out who do not cherish the memory of men like Washington, who stood for truth, honor, and justice, but rather cherish and revere the memory of lives of traitors and malefactors. The worst of it is that the same fellows who are finding fault with George Washington are snapping and gnawing at the heartstrings of our government today. It is the same bunch who would destroy the democracy of our own government if they could get the reins of government.

The people should not forget that there are always vultures hovering around to peck out the eyes of the lambs.

The tongue that curses good men is more destructive than the sword of the bitterest adversary.

Why do you do it?

Why pay 50 cents for only a half-pint can of liquid insect-killer, when you can get just as much Black Flag Liquid—the deadliest insect-killer made—for only 25 cents. Black Flag is sure death to insects—Black Flag comes in two forms—Liquid and Powder. Both are sure death to flies, mosquitoes, roaches, ants, bed bugs, fleas, etc. Powder, 15 cents up.

The First Lesson for the Home Economics Teacher

The oil-can explosion will happen just as long as people build fires and then pour oil on them to make them burn better.

In the death by burning, when an oil can exploded in the hands of Mrs. Purdue, of Henderson, this week, when she attempted to make the fire burn faster in her kitchen stove, we are reminded of the horrors of death, by taking too much risk with so dangerous a thing as pouring oil on a lighted fire.

It is just as important to teach women how to safely build a fire as it is to teach them how to cook wholesome food. This should be the first lesson in home economics.

One Advantage of Monarchy

The advantage of a monarchy is that monarchs are born into office while rulers of republics are too often lied into office. The fact is, things are getting into a muddle. Yet often all the trouble seems to be that the art of honor seems to be lost.

Who Are Democrats?

There was a time when it was easy to tell what really constituted a Democrat, but now it is not so easy.

The climax of perplexity was reached on Wednesday in New York City, when Alfred E. Smith, Democratic nominee for president, chose John Raskob as chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Raskob is listed in "Who's Who" as a Republican, though a close check credits him with voting for Woodrow Wilson. In the light of this condition who will be able to slam the door now, or at any future time, in the face of any man and say, "You are tainted."

Rumor has it that in the event of Smith's election, Raskob is to be Secretary of the Treasury. This may or may not be true. No one doubts Raskob's ability, who was Du Pont trained, now head of General Motors, and a Wall Street magnate.

With the Republican party's black sheet covered with oil, Georgia post offices and a robbery tariff issue stretched out before us, and a Raskob to lead the Democrats, what have the folks who believe in honest government got to inspire them.

Would it not have been better if the Democrats had selected the slogan, "A Clean Washington," and stuck to it?
