ASK REDUCTION COUNTY BUDGET

makes the deductions that we have recommended in their various requests, a copy of which is being furnished to the board of commissioners, it is our request that you do not approve the budget of the Board of Education of Martin County.

15. We recommend that our representatives in the legislature of North Carolina be instructed to pass, if possible, a law whereby the six months' schools provided for by the State shall be run and maintained by the State, and that this burden be taken from the counties of North Carolina. We further recommend that our representatives in the next legislature be instructed to have passed for Martin County a law whereby the members of the board of education shall be elected by the people of the county in the same manner and at the same time as other county officers.

16. Be it resolved by the committee appointed by the taxpayers of the county that we express to the various county officers our full appreciation of the uniform courtesy extended to us in making the investigation upon which the above recommendations are based, and we further express our appreciation of the condition of each of the offices of the county. The records in each being neatly and systematically kept, to the extent that the same are a credit to themselves and to the county.

The above recommendations are respectfully submitted without prejudice to any office or officer in the county and same are made for the purpose and with the intention of reducing the present burden of taxation, and for no other purpose.

It is further resolved that copies of these recommendations be furnished to The Enterprise in Williamston, and to the Herald, in Robersonville, with the request that the same be printed as furnished and in detail as submitted, and that a copy of the same be furnished to the board of commissioners of Martin County.

(Signed) R. W. Salsbury, Chairman; D. R. Everett, Secretary; J. G. Staton, J. Eason Lilley, C. C. Fleming, Committee for the taxpayers of Martin County, North Carolina.

(The above report was submitted too late for editorial comment in this issue, and the same will follow later. —Editor.)

East Carolinas Biggest Semi-Annual Event

DOLLAR DAY

IN GREENVILLE

Tues., August 14

This Dollar Day will prove one of the most important merchandising events of this or any previous year. The merchants participating whose names appear below have made special purchases and preparations for this bargain festival, and the buying public will be presented values such as never before afforded in these popular semi-annual events.

Representatives of many of the firms who are cooperating in this sale are now on northern markets making special purchases for Dollar Day, which assures a greater variety of merchandise from which to make your selections. We suggest early shopping—for these mighty values are bound to reduce stock quickly.
