P. E. Getsinger Replies to Article in Washington Newspaper

(Washington Progress)

Three weeks ago there appeared in The Progress an article setting forth some of the details in connection with the split which had occurred in the Primitive Baptist Church at Smithwick's Creek.

The views of Elder Harrington, whose doctrinal views had aroused the criticism of some of the members of the church, were set forth in detail. The article occasioned considerable interest and drew forth a reply this week the church intended to stand up for from P. E. Getsinger announcing that the tenets of its faith, regardless of opposition. The reply has the endorsement of the present membership of the church and reads as follows:

"Please allow me space in your paper for a short article to correct some of the ideas drawn from an article which appeared in the August 2 issue of The Progress relative to the church at Smithwick's Creek.

"Elder Harrington has withdrawn in the endeavor to avoid further contention, but the members are still holding to and contending for the principles of doctrine upon which the church was founded and organized in November, 1803. And we find ourselves at this time not trying to form a new church but in the preservation of the one already old. This church today doth speak on this wise, which things the Apostle declares should be affirmed constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good work (Titus, 3:8-9). For we, ourselves, also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Savior toward man appeared. Not by works of righteousness which we have done but according to his mercy, He saved us by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior; that being justified by His grace we should be made His according to the hope of eternal life."

"No, then, Salvation is by grace and not of good works, for we may be a performer of good works, but those works will not make us righteous; they will have some sin mixed with them. Therefore, righteousness and justification are through faith. We have much testimony to bear this up, for we must remember that when a certain sect of the Pharisees that believed rose up and said it was needful to circumcise them and to command them to keep the laws of Moses, according to Acts 15:6-10, the Apostles and elders came together to consider this matter, and when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them: 'Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the Gospel and believe. And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith."

"This faction of the church is standing on these principles and has never raised any disturbance with any one. It was the other faction that made complaints and withdrew and left home. They made for themselves a new record and formed themselves into a separate organization. The prodigal son, when he left home, came back again. Perhaps they, too, will return.

"We are not seeking another way nor asking for another interpretation different from that which the church was founded on, for we have as our guidance the words of the prophet Jeremiah: "Thus saith the Lord: Stand ye in the ways and see and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said we will not walk therein."

"May we ever be found walking in the ways of the Lord Jehovah."
