Set the Compass Now for 1931

In the passing of the 1929 General Assembly, a new page has been written in our State's history, one of the longest sessions ever held, very little accomplished, and the hardest fight that the "interests" have had on their hands in many years.

If the people had had just a few prominent leaders, they would have won the battle. Perhaps if Mr. McLean's feet had kept warm, he would have won the fight. But, for some unknown reason, he had a bad attack of cold feet, and they never could be warmed again. A few other fellows seemed to have been anointed with "Freezone," from the fact that they grew so cold and indifferent.

At least one thing has developed in this turmoil; and that is that the people need to be careful in the selection of men who can cope with the experts of the interests, and who can't be frightened by the wailing of the interests.

Now is the time for the Democratic Party to set its compass and point to a fair and just tax law in 1931.

Why Women Smoke

Dr. J. Edgar Park, of Boston, says that women smoke because they want to show they are good sports and are just as free as men, and that they do it as a sort of "inferiority complex." We are glad to get this modest view of the great educator.

Our opinion has heretofore been that women smoked out of a spirit of impudence and bigotry. Just the same cause that starts most young men to drink—a spirit of bigotry.

Perhaps there may be some ignorance mixed in both cases. For surely the young man or young woman who poisons his mind and weakens his body with alcohol or nicotine will some day, justly be called a fool.

An Even Break Needed

We have enough prosperity. The trouble is that it is not evenly distributed.

Some are growing gorgeously rich, while others are growing grumblingly poor.

The rich are working their minds; the poor are working their bodies. The bodies are producing the wealth and the minds are taking it.

The trouble is that the minds of the country are making all the plans for the merchandising, the transporting, the financing, and the lawmaking of the country. This gives them the advantage in the transporting, manufacturing, merchandising, and financing, and in lawmaking.

This process has gone on until the wealth of the country has drained from the mass of people who labor to the few people who think; and we find the wealth and power has drained from the four corners of the country into the reservoirs or financial centers of the country. The condition is just the same as when all the rivers and streams of the land run to the ocean, leaving the land thirty, dry, and impoverished, while the ocean is overflowing.

The farmers' profits, the merchants' profits, the laborers' profits, all have been pouring into the coffers of the wealthy until they are bursting with wealth, leaving the people poorer each day.

All the people who do the work need is an even chance with those who think, the same laws of tax, the same advantages in merchandising, transporting, and financing, equality in privileges—and no more. Then business will be more healthy.

Feeding the Goose

That old goose that lays the golden eggs still sets on the nest. The legislature was afraid to "shoo" her off.

The big gang, when they are called on to help carry their part of the country's load, always squawks "Don't kill the goose that lays the golden eggs." The folks have waited long and patiently for some of those golden eggs, but so far they have never received any. The golden eggs are always gathered by the fellows who don't want the goose killed.

The folks who are dissatisfied are the people who are feeding the goose and gathering no eggs. The tobacco farmers of the East are not only feeding the goose but also the geese and ganders, but they get no golden eggs. They are set in Durham and Winston-Salem and hatch more geese to eat the fruits of the labor of the farmer, and workingman, to lay more golden eggs for the "R.J.R.'s" and "A.T.'s"

Is the Roanoke To Be Neglected?

According to newspaper reports, the Government is going to spend, during this year, the sum of $160,000 on surveys of what are claimed to be the three principal rivers in North Carolina, Cape Fear, Neuse, and Tar. We have no objection to the government helping the people along these rivers. But why neglect the Roanoke, which, with a very small expenditure, can easily carry boats to Weldon?

The same little $3,000 appropriation goes to the Roanoke each year, which means very little help.

As to the importance of the rivers of the State, neither the Tar nor the Neuse is in a class with the Roanoke, which has more miles of navigable water than both of them.

We need a Roanoke Congressman.

DEAR FARMER— STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN!
 Here is your opportunity to gain in your yield of tobacco per acre by using the FOWLER CULTIVATOR which gets the dirt from middle of the row and makes a perfect ridge without cutting off your feed roots. It has proved that hilling tobacco in this way has made a gain from $25 to $50 per acre.

For you know: When you side your tobacco the last times the feed roots are cut off, which checks the growth for a few days. During this time new feed roots are formed, which really causes a second growth. This second growth causes your tobacco to grow bony and thin. If the feed roots are not cut off, your tobacco will thicken as it spreads and make a better quality of tobacco.

 February 20, 1929.
 Mr. Hyman Warren, Agent, Robersonville, N. C.
 Dear Sir:

I have used the Improved Fowler Cultivator about twelve years for laying-by tobacco, cotton, corn, and other crops. Also for hilling up sweet potatoes. I consider it one of the most useful and satisfactory cultivators I have ever used and would not be without it for many times the price.
 Yours very truly,
 J. R. WINSLOW.

Notice to Parents
 Clinics for the examination of the children to enter school next session for the first time will be conducted according to the following schedule:

WILLIAMSTON ----- MARCH 25
 School Building, 9 o'Clock

JAMESVILLE ----- MARCH 26
 School Building, 9 o'Clock

ROBERSONVILLE --- MARCH 27
 School Building, 9 o'Clock

The State Board of Health will have a trained nurse and a physician present to examine your children.

It is of the utmost importance that your child or children be physically fit to enter school. Most of the causes of bad health in children can be remedied. These causes should be remedied before the child enters school.

Have your child examined by a physician and then act upon his advice.
