COLDS, INDIGESTION

Tennessee Lady Tells About The Long Use of Theodor's Black-Draught In Her Family.

Rutledge, Tenn.—"For thirty years or longer we have been using Black-Draught in our home as a family medicine, and have found it to be very handy," says Mrs. John McGinnis, of near here.
 "Since I have been married and had children of my own, I have found it to be a fine medicine to give them for colds and indigestion. I have three little girls, and when I see one of them fretful and 'droopy' in the morning, I begin treating her with a course of Black-Draught. It is not long until she is lively and well again. I make a tea of it and give it to the children, as they take it best that way.
 "I take Black-Draught for constipation and indigestion. If I wake up with a bad taste in my mouth and feel sluggish and dull, I know it is time for a dose of Black-Draught.
 "We try to keep a box of Black-Draught always in the house and are seldom without it. My health is generally good, but I think it is a good thing to keep a mild, dependable remedy on hand for spells of constipation."
 In use nearly a hundred years. Twenty-five doses 25¢. NC-205

Twentieth Century Club Meet Held Wednesday

Mrs. J. W. Watts, jr., delightfully entertained the Twentieth Century Club on Wednesday afternoon. She had as her special guests Mesdames J. D. Biggs, P. B. Cone, W. C. Manning, jr., Milton Moye, C. B. and Herbert Clark, C. H. Dickey, Whit Purvis, A. R. Dunning, O. S. Anderson, F. J. Margolis, Robert F.

Heydenreich, L. H. Davis, and Miss Mildred Darden.
 The program for the meeting was on the subject "Art in the Netherlands." Mrs. F. U. Barnes read an interesting description of the famous painters and their works in the Netherlands. Mrs. J. H. Saunders read a paper, "The Influence of the Church on Art," and Mrs. N. C. Green gave current events.

Mrs. Watts, assisted by Mrs. O. S. Anderson and Mrs. J. D. Biggs, served a salad course after the program was completed.

Monthly Meeting of Oak City Literary Club

Oak City, March 19.—The Literary Club held its monthly meeting Wednesday evening at the home economics room of the Oak City School; five of the teachers acting as hostesses.
 The program committee, Miss Mildred Davenport and Miss Sarah

Long Johnson, presented a study of three of our living poets. By a turning from the dead to the living poets, the realistic natural age of literature was grasped from the thoughts of the poets' writings.

To complete the pleasure of the evening a game entitled "Profile

Drawing" was enjoyed. Miss Julia Holloway won a box of bath powder as prize for scoring the highest. The hostesses served delicious Bavarian cream and cakes.

JUST ARRIVED A LOAD OF nice fresh mules, well broke, ready for work. Also some good seconds. J. R. Morris, Robersonville. mr8 tf
