Prominent Wedding

Wilson, Jan. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown, of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to Comte Frank de Chasseloup-Laubat on November 30, 1929, in Nashville, N. C. The young couple sailed from New York City on the 14th of December for Paris, France, and were married with the impressive Catholic ceremony on January 6th.

Following the ceremony in Paris, the groom's parents, Marquis and Marquise de Chasseloup-Laubat entertained at a brilliant reception, to which over 2,000 invitations were issued.

She was very talented, having received her education at the Alvene School in New York City. She studied art in Paris, French at Olynce School, and voice under Franceff, of the Opera Comique.

The Comte received his education at the College of Normandy in England, saw military service in the Malay States, and is a member of the National Track team and won honors in several meets.
