Has Strength, Energy Of 20 Years Ago

ROBT. A. STRATE

"I suffered ten years with as bad a case of stomach trouble as any man ever had. It was impossible for me to ever enjoy a meal without suffering. I was terribly rundown. Five bottles of Sargon made me feel like a new man. I have gained sixteen pounds and have as much strength and vitality as I had twenty years ago. I have never found anything to equal Sargon Soft Mass Pills. They regulate me perfectly."—Robt. A. Strate, 425 West 24th Street, Oklahoma City.

The demand for Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills has probably broken all world's records for the length of time they have been on the market. S. R. Biggs Drug Co., agents.—ad.

Vegetables for Health

By GUY A. CARDWELL

In a recent publication South Carolina Natural Resources Commission calls attention to the fact that fruits and vegetables are essential components of a diet that is to maintain health and normal well-being, and adds that much interest has been aroused through the discovery that fruits and vegetables raised in South Carolina contain enormously greater quantities of iodine than do those from northern or inland states.

A lack of iodine results in: Enlargement of the thyroid gland in the neck Lowering of mental and physical activity

Birth of young which are stunted physically or mentally; producing dwarfs or idiots

Sterility—failure to reproduce, young born dead or surviving only a short time.

Wide publicity has been given to the discovery of iodine in South Carolina fruits and vegetables, and the attention of the medical profession has been attracted; but it will, in the opinion of the writer, take time and a lot of publicity to get the right kind of information over to dealers in produce and to housewives and other members of households responsible for the stocking of the family larder, particularly in Buffalo, Cincinnati, Cleveland and elsewhere in what may be termed the Goiter belt.

Unless and until a correct idea of the unique value of fruits and vegetables grown in this section is grasped by buyers and consumers living beyond our borders, South Carolina produce and South Carolina canned goods will have to compete on a quality basis with similar grown in many places. By quality basis we mean freshness, flavor, appearance, substantial pack and attractiveness of container.

In time the unparalleled possession of the iodine content of our produce, if the identification feature is carefully looked after, may lead to the sale of the same on a premium basis; but we cannot count on this for the present nor for some time to come. In the meantime let's "clean house" and advertise.

In planning to popularize and market our products we should remember that the marketing chain is no stronger than its weakest link. We should seek out and strengthen our weak spots, bearing in mind that ultimate success and increased profits depend upon markets; efficient production; standard grades; standard containers; proper identification; sufficient supply; suitable advertising; consumer satisfaction; and reliable market information.

Joe E. Brown and Marilyn Miller in "Sally" Picture

Joe E. Brown, one of Broadway's leading stage comedians is seen in the featured comedy role opposite Marilyn Miller in "Sally," the First National and Vitaphone all-color picture to be shown at the Trio Theatre in Robertsonville Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, April 21, 22, 23, with a special midnight showing Sunday night, April 25th, at 12:05 a. m.

Starting in burlesque, Brown graduated into vaudeville and musical comedy and played in many long-run stage hits on Broadway before joining the rush of footlight favorites to Hollywood. In "Sally," he is given a role that lends itself to his many diversified talents, including a comedy dance with Marilyn Miller.

Others in the cast are Alexander Gray, Pert Kelton, both former Broadway stage stars, and T. Roy Barnes, Ford Sterling and other film favorites.

"Sally" recently played on Broadway at $2 per seat. There is no advance in prices at the Trio for the showing next week.

Mississippi Lady Says She Felt Stronger, Better After Taking Cardul.

Greenwood, Miss.—Mrs. W. D. Taylor, of 1512 Carrollton Avenue, this city, has written of her use of Cardul as follows:

"About five years ago, I was in ill health. I suffered a great deal of pain in my sides and in the lower part of my body. I was weak and nervous, and at the least noise I felt like I must scream.

"At times I would have to go to bed. My head would ache. It would take me three or four days to get over these spells.

"A friend told me to take Cardul, which I did. After my first bottle, I saw some improvement. When I had taken three bottles, I felt stronger and better than I had in some time. I did not have any more of those bad spells.

"I certainly recommend Cardul." Thousands of other women recommend Cardul, after having found it of valuable assistance to them in building up their health.

Cardul is a purely vegetable medicine, and contains nothing harmful. The medicinal value of the herbs from which Cardul is extracted have been well-known in the history of medicine for more than six hundred years.

Try it for your troubles. Take CARDUL
