A Little Girl's Prayer

Daddy, if you know we're hungry, Know that we are very poor, It must break your heart in Heaven 'Cause you never did insure. Mamma wonders why you didn't Save the dimes you threw away; But you felt too strong and healthy For insurance, people say.

You were taken without warning, Leaving us to fight alone; You'd have taken out insurance, Daddy, if you'd only known. 'Twasn't that you didn't love us, I recall how dear you were; But your little girl must suffer, 'Cause you failed to save for her.

Mamma just can't make the living, She is wearing out, she says. I shall have to miss some schooling For the sake of daily bread. When she's gone I gues they'll take me To a place of charity, To be fed and clothed, but, Daddy, It can ne'er be home to me.

Mary's daddy left insurance, And their home will still be theirs. They're not hungry, and sometimes Mary Gives me cast-off clothes to wear. They don't have to take in sewing, Mary's mamma doesn't cry, For her Daddy left insurance, But you didn't, Daddy-Why? -Annie Denman.
